

Obsah

Preface	XI
1. Introduction and methodology	1
2. International standards, principles and recommendations	3
Selection	7
Evaluation	10
Promotion	13
3. Selected aspects of the independence and impartiality of judges in the light of recent case law	15
The concept of judicial independence and impartiality	15
Recent case law	18
Conclusions	22
4. Supreme Judicial Councils as a Guarantee of the Independence of Judicial Power and Their Role in the Appointment and Career Advancement of Judges	25
On the Constitutional Modernization of the Separation of Powers	26
The Position and Function of “Supreme Judicial Councils”	27
Comparative Criteria for Evaluating the Functioning of Supreme Judicial Councils and of Eventual Model Constitutional Versions	31
General Introduction to the Configuration of the Criteria for Selecting (New) Judges	33
Assessment and Where Appropriate Evaluation of the Preparation Procedure for Judicial Candidates Including Tests and Examination Methods	36
The judicial system and the system for selecting judges in the Netherlands	41
The Specific Role of Supreme Judicial Councils in the Selection of Candidates for Appointment into Court Service	48
Special Importance in the Highest Ranks of the Judicial System When Appointing Court Functionaries, Promoting Them and Accepting New Judges from Outside	52
Summary and Conclusions	52
5. Conclusions of comparative analysis, recommendations, and good practices	55

6. Essential aspects of the Model of Selection, evaluation and promotion of judges and implementation of the principle of independence of judges in selection, evaluation, and promotion procedure	63
General standards and principles developed (accepted) by relevant international bodies	65
Basis of appointment or promotion	70
Appointing and consultative bodies	71
Methodology on the evaluation, selection and promotion of judges	75
Security of tenure and evaluation of judges	77
Principles in case law of supranational and national courts	79
Summary	82
7. Evaluation of the current procedures for the appointment (evaluation) of judges from the aspect of judicial independence	83
Regarding selection of judges, the independent body and its role	83
Regarding professional evaluation (promotion) of judges	90
8. From the theory to practice: Set out competencies and skills in selection, evaluation and promotion procedures, examples	95
General aspects of Selection	95
Selection of candidates to judicial office	97
Procedural aspects of selection in examples and practices	105
General principles of evaluation	109
Criteria and procedures of evaluation	110
Methodology of assessment	114
Targeted evaluation: promotion to higher judicial or administrative position	114
9. Specifics of assessment of soft competences of candidates/judges . . .	119
Criteria of evaluation of soft competences and skills	119
The methods of assessment of soft competences and skills	122
The composition of the selection commissions and competencies of the selectors	124
10. Selection and promotion of judges to managerial position: what competences matter?	127
Effective Leadership: What Knowledge and Competencies Do Organizational Leaders Need?	127
Content of managerial competencies	129
Side effects of competency assessment and factors influencing managerial behaviour	131
Set of court leader competences and methods of their assessment	134
11. Conclusions	137
12. The Model of selection, evaluation and promotion of judges in graphic table format	139