

BIOGRAPHIES

Authors

Antonio Coco. Antonio Coco is currently a departmental lecturer in law at Oxford University, and a tutor at St Peter's College, Oxford. He is also a PhD candidate in International Law at the University of Geneva, and a member of the Journal of International Criminal Justice's Editorial Committee. Previously, he worked for the Geneva Academy, the ILC, the STL and the non-governmental organization 'Trial – Track Impunity Always'. Antonio holds an LLM in International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights from the Geneva Academy and a master's degree in law from the University of Catania. He is admitted to practise law in Italy, where he has worked as a defence counsel.

Marjolein Cupido. Marjolein Cupido is currently working as an assistant professor at the Department of Criminal Law and Criminology of VU University, Amsterdam. She is also a fellow at the Center for International Criminal Justice. Marjolein Cupido holds an LLM in criminal law (summa cum laude) from Leiden University where she also participated in the Talent Programme, an extracurricular programme on legal research. In 2015, she defended her doctoral dissertation – entitled 'Facts Matter: A Study into the Casuistry of Substantive International Criminal Law' – at VU Amsterdam. Parts of this dissertation will be published in the Journal of International Criminal Justice, the Leiden Journal of International Law and the Melbourne Journal of International Law.

Tom Gal. Tom Gal is currently a teaching and research assistant at the Geneva Academy and is a PhD candidate at the University of Geneva. She is also an SNSF doctoral grantee of the Marie Heim Vogtlin grant. Tom Gal received the Journal of International Criminal Justice 2014 Prize. She has been the legal advisor of Geneva based NGOs active in the Human Rights Council in Geneva. Tom Gal is the co-founder and the Vice-Chairman of ALMA – the Association for the Promotion of International Humanitarian Law in Israel. She is an attorney-at-law and member of the Israeli Bar Association. Prior to joining the Geneva Academy Tom practised as an attorney in public civil rights and criminal cases.

Jérôme de Hemptinne. is teaching international humanitarian law at the Universities of Louvain and Lille and is a Researcher at the University of Geneva. He worked for more than a decade at the ICTY. He also worked at the Office of the UN Legal Counsel in New York and at the STL. Jérôme de Hemptinne is member of the editorial committee of the Journal of International Criminal Justice. He is also co-author (with Jean d'Aspremont) of the book Droit international humanitaire. Thèmes choisis (Paris: Pedone, 2012).

Miles Jackson. Miles Jackson is currently an associate professor of law at the University of Oxford and a fellow of Jesus College, Oxford. He has a range of research interests in international and criminal law, and in 2015 published his monograph, Complicity in International Law (Oxford University Press). In 2017, he was awarded the Cassese Prize for International Criminal Law Studies.

Alejandro Kiss. Alejandro Kiss works at the ICC where he has served in different roles including as lawyer in the Office of the Public Counsel for Victims, as Head of Operations and as Legal Officer in Chambers. Previously, he worked for the Court of Appeal and the Attorney General of Argentina. He is Adjunct Professor of International Criminal Law at The Hague University and has taught criminal law and international criminal law and held visiting fellowships at various Universities in Europe and Latin America. He obtained his LLM and his PhD at the Münster University in Germany, where his doctoral thesis was awarded the Harry Westermann prize. He holds law degrees from Argentina (Hon.) and Spain. He has published in the fields of criminal law, criminal proceedings and international criminal law.

Robert Roth. Robert Roth has been full Professor (Professeur ordinaire) at the Geneva Faculty of Law since 1987. He was Dean of the Law Faculty from 2003 to 2007. He was Director of the Geneva Academy from 2014 to 2018. He was a judge at the Geneva Cour de cassation from 1992 to 2011, when he was elected President of the Trial Chamber of the STL. He left the Tribunal in September 2013. His main teaching fields are international, European and comparative criminal law. He has published nine books (as author or editor) and more than ninety articles.

Elies van Sliedregt. Elies van Sliedregt holds the Chair of International and Comparative Criminal Law at Leeds University (UK) and is Deputy Director of its Centre of Criminal Justice Studies (CCJS). Previously she was professor of criminal law at VU Amsterdam and Dean of the Faculty of Law from 2011 to 2015. She has held visiting fellowships in Cambridge, Oxford, Bologna, and at the University of New South Wales, Sydney. In 2015, she was Holding Redlich fellow at the Castan Centre for Human Rights at Monash University, Melbourne. At the ICC, she was a visiting professional with Chambers in the summer of 2010. Elies van Sliedregt is Senior Editor of the Leiden Journal of International Law and a member of the Royal Holland Society of Sciences and Humanities. She has published extensively in the field of international, European and comparative criminal law. Elies van Sliedregt is leading a project entitled 'Dealing with Divergence? National Adjudication of International Crimes' funded by the NWO Social Sciences Research Council of The Netherlands.

Manuel J. Ventura. Manuel J. Ventura is currently a director of the Peace and Justice Initiative, an adjunct fellow at the School of Law at Western Sydney University, an ad hoc lecturer of international law at The Hague University and an associate legal officer in Chambers at the STL. He has previously served in the Office of the Prosecutor at the ICTY, in Defence at the ICC, and in the Office of Chief Justice Mogoeng at the Constitutional Court of South Africa and of President Antonio Cassese at the STL. Manuel J. Ventura has an LLM (Hons.) in international humanitarian law and human rights from the Geneva Academy, and publishes regularly on topics related to international criminal law and justice.

Lachezar Yanev. Lachezar Yanev is currently an assistant professor in international criminal law at Tilburg University. He has previously worked as an assistant legal officer in Trial Chamber II of the SCSL and has also interned at the ICTY and at the ICC. He holds a PhD (Tilburg University, cum laude) and an LLM degree in international criminal and human rights law (Utrecht University, 2010, cum laude). Lachezar Yanev has taught courses in comparative and international criminal law at Tilburg University. His research and publications extend to the fields of international criminal law and human rights law.

Assisting Format and Content Editors

Dillon Roseen. Dillon Roseen is currently a Millennial Public Policy Fellow at the New America think tank in Washington, DC, where he researches international law and cyber security issues. As a Fulbright Research Fellow, he earned his LLM from VU Amsterdam in law and politics of international security (2017). At VU Amsterdam, Dillon Roseen served as editor of the Amsterdam Law Forum and won the first place role-play award at the Frits Kalshoven Moot Court competition. He has previously interned at the White House under President Obama. Dillon holds a bachelor of science (2015, summa cum laude) in economics and international affairs from the Georgia Institute of Technology, where he served as Student Body President.

Thomas Van Poecke. Thomas Van Poecke is a PhD candidate at the University of Leuven. He was a legal assistant to the Special Rapporteur on Immunity of State Officials from Foreign Criminal Jurisdiction at the ILC (2017). Thomas Van Poecke holds an LLM in international humanitarian law and human rights from the Geneva Academy (2017) and a master of law from the University of Zurich (2016) and the University of Leuven (2016).

181	International Human Rights Law	this project
	International Law Commission
182	International Law Commission, 'Draft articles on Responsibility of States for Internationally Wrongful Acts with commentaries', Yearbook of International Law Commission 2001, Vol. II, Part I A/CN.4/SER.A/2001/Add.1
183	International Military Tribunal
184	International Military Tribunal Charter, 1945
185	International Military Tribunal for the Far East
186	Joint Criminal Enterprise
187	Journal of International Criminal Justice
188	Law Reports of Trials of War Criminals
189	Mechanism for International Criminal Tribunal
190	Non-Governmental Organization
191	Special Court for Sierra Leone
192	Statute of the Special Court for Sierra Leone, 1992
193	Special Tribunal for Lebanon
194	Statute of the Special Tribunal for Lebanon, 2007
195	United Nations
196	United Nations General Assembly	