

Contents

Jan Bečka Vít Smetana	Word from the Editors	5
Essays and articles
Vilém Prečan	The Czech Twentieth Century?	7
Dalibor Vácha	Tepluskas and Eshelons Czechoslovak Legionaries on their Journey across Russia	20
Stanislav Kokoška	Resistance, Collaboration, Adaptation... Some Notes on the Research of the Czech Society in the Protectorate	54
Martin Franc Jiří Knapík	“Getting Around to the Human Being in the Next Quarter” Leisure Time in the Czech Lands, 1948–1956	77
Michal Kopeček	The Stigma of the Past and the Bond of Belonging Czech Communists in the First Decade after 1989	101
Prague Chronicle
Vít Smetana	An Unending Story with a Sudden End – and Its Immediate Consequences for East-Central Europe The Numerous Impulses from the Prague Conference on the Cold War	131
Book Reviews
Petr Kaplan	The Sudeten Germans and the Twilight of the First Republic	149

Francis D. Raška	An American Monograph on the Protectorate	155
Jan Bečka	Czechoslovaks on the Battlefields of Indochina	159
Karel Hrubý	In Praise of Roots	165
Přemysl Houđa	Rock and Politics in Communist Czechoslovakia	176
Doubravka Olšáková	A Crazy Century of Memories	180
Alessandro Catalano	Ideological Literature in Non-Ideological Perspective The First Modern History of Czech Literature of the Socialist Era Comes Out Twenty Years after 1989	186
Adéla Gjuríčová	A British View of the Czech Right	197
Summaries		203
Authors		213