

CONTENTS | FROM POLIČKA TO PRAGUE 1890 – 1922

On The Polička Tower ^{1.1}	_3
A Loving Family ^{1.2}	_3
The Journey to Music ^{1.3}	_4
At the Conservatory ^{1.4}	_5
Prague and a Life Crisis ^{1.5}	_6
A Music Teacher in Polička ^{1.6}	_7
The Czech Philharmonic and Josef Suk ^{1.7}	_8

PARIS AND THE AVANTGARDE 1923 – 1940

To Paris as a Student Again ^{2.1}	_11
The Czech Colony ^{2.2}	_11
International Success ^{2.3}	_14
The Appeal of Home ^{2.4}	_16
The Czech Operas ^{2.5}	_17
Paul Sacher, Juliette and Munich ^{2.6}	_18
The Fall of Paris ^{2.7}	_21

EXILE AND THE UNITED STATES 1941 – 1952

A New Beginning ^{3.1}	_24
A Memorial to Lidice ^{3.2}	_26
Memories of Home From Beyond the Ocean ^{3.3}	_28
A Teacher Again ^{3.4}	_30
The Period of Symphonies and Great Successes ^{3.5}	_31
Peace - the Joy and the Pain ^{3.6}	_33
A Divided World and the Cold War ^{3.7}	_33

THE LAST YEARS 1953 – 1959

A Return Without Returning ^{4.1}	_36
Looking Back Into the Past ^{4.2}	_37
Here Is My Home ^{4.3}	_38
The Last Operas ^{4.4}	_39
The Parting With the World ^{4.5}	_42
The Care for the Composer's Legacy ^{4.6}	_45
Through Polička in the Footsteps of Bohuslav Martinů ^{4.7}	_46