

Contents

List of Abbreviations

xiii

1. Introduction: Thinking the State	I
Readings of the State Tradition	I
The State Tradition through Time	4
The State as Tradition	8
Degrees and Varieties of States	II

PART I: COSMOPOLITAN ORIGINS

2. Antecedents	17
Early Cosmopolitanism	17
Early European Cosmopolitanism	19
The Church as State	20
The church within	22
The church without	24
The bridging church	26
The Diversity of Empire	27
Collaborative Cities	28
Affirmative Crowns	32
3. Persistence	36
Persistence of Cosmopolitan Ways	37
Institutional cosmopolitanism	38
Constitutionalism	43
Common laws	46
Persistence of Elements of Closure	52
Writing	52
Hierarchy	54
Boundaries	58

PART II: CLOSURE?

4. A Territorial State?	63
Writing	63
Customs	64

Codes	65
Constitutions	69
Hierarchy	73
The state as body, crown, or corporate person	73
Organizational success	76
An emerging theory of the state	78
Boundaries	83
5. A Nation-State?	86
Language	86
Religion	89
Nation	92
Nation and State	94
The Unremitting Diversity of States	98
Manifest Diversity	101
The decline of empire	101
Fragmentation, failure, and violence	102
Minorities	105
PART III: COSMOPOLITANISM SUSTAINED
6. Common Laws	111
Common Laws within Europe	112
Common Laws beyond Europe	117
7. Constitutionalism	126
Justifying the Contemporary State	126
The United States of America	127
France and the world	132
Limits of Authority	135
Sources	136
Structures	139
Relations and guarantees	144
8. Institutional Cosmopolitanism	147
Churches and Religions	147
Internationality and Empire	153
Public international law	156
Private international law	159
PART IV: THE CONTEMPORARY COSMOPOLITAN STATE
9. Globalization, Cosmopolitan Theory, and the State	165
Globalization	165
Writing	167
Hierarchy	168
Boundaries	170

Cosmopolitan Theory	172
The State and Globalization	180
The state as agent of globalization	181
The state as beneficiary of globalization	183
The adaptive state	184
10. Cosmopolitan Citizens	187
Citizenship over Time	187
Citizenship and Mobility	193
Cosmopolitan Citizens	197
Citizenship, domicile, and residence	198
Accommodating citizenships	200
11. Cosmopolitan Sources I: Constitutionalism	203
Constitutional Structures and Sources of Law	204
The Cosmopolitan Turn in Constitutional Sources	207
12. Cosmopolitan Sources II: Common Laws	214
Resurgence	215
Reconciliation	217
Reciprocity	220
13. Cosmopolitan Sources III: Institutional Cosmopolitanism	223
States and Religious Authority	223
Religious liberty	224
State and religious legal sources	228
States and International Law	239
Public international law	239
Private international law	245
States and Regional Law	249
States and Transnational Law	255
14. Cosmopolitan Thought	259
Cosmopolitan Logics	259
The cosmopolitan limits of binary logic	260
The cosmopolitan character of the new logics	265
Cosmopolitan Logics and Legal Diversity	274
The Cosmopolitan Logic of Constitutionalism	276
The origin of states	276
The failure of states	278
The functioning of states	279
The Cosmopolitan Logic of Common Laws	283
The Logic of Institutional Cosmopolitanism	286
15. Concluding Remarks	291
Bibliography of References	293
Index	375