

Contents

	READING	WRITING
1 EDUCATION Page 007 Academic focus: Preparation for academic study	Dictionaries Reading and understanding short informative texts Reading for the main idea and for detail Note-taking (1) - organizing key information Using notes to write a summary Sentence structure (1): Frequent sentence patterns	Starting the process Understanding essay titles Generating ideas for writing tasks Creating and evaluating a plan for writing Verbs in essay titles (1) Paraphrasing (1): Reasons for paraphrasing
2 SYSTEMS Page 023 Academic focus: Description and definition	Textbooks (1) Understanding and extracting key factual information in a text Recognizing and writing definitions Summarizing key factual information in a text Sentence structure (2): Simple definitions Noun phrases (2): Adjective + noun, noun + prepositional phrase	Descriptions (1) Identifying the language and features of descriptions of visual information Writing a short description of visual information Using noun phrases containing relative clauses in definitions Noun phrases (3): Noun phrases containing relative clauses
3 COMMUNICATION Page 039 Academic focus: Using evidence	Textbooks (2) Identifying main ideas and supporting evidence in a text Building word families Using adverbs to express stance Word families Expressing stance: Adverbs	Topic sentences; paragraphs Analysing and writing topic sentences Adding supporting evidence using reasons and examples Writing and evaluating a paragraph Noun phrases (5): Noun + noun combinations
4 ORDER Page 055 Academic focus: Classification	Textbooks (3) Identifying the purpose and structure of a text Using classification to make notes as you read Paraphrasing (2): Noun and verb transformations	Essay introductions Analyzing an essay introduction Writing and evaluating a thesis statement Writing and evaluating an essay introduction The passive (1): Maintaining focus
5 INTELLIGENCE Page 071 Academic focus: Connecting ideas	Textbooks (4) Identifying the argument and structure of a text Identifying cohesive language Identifying hedging language Cohesion: Reference words Hedging language (1): Modal verbs, verbs, adverbials	Essay conclusions Analysing an essay conclusion Linking ideas coherently Writing and evaluating an essay conclusion Coherence: Repetition and synonyms
6 CHANGE Page 087 Academic focus: Describing processes	Popular academic texts Predicting the content of a text from visual information Understanding a description of a process in a text Identifying and using signposting language for describing a process Transitive and intransitive verbs Signposting language (3): Different grammatical forms to link text	Descriptions (2) Analysing written descriptions of processes Writing a paragraph describing a process The passive (2): Using active and passive forms

LISTENING*Lectures (1)

Understanding the introduction to a lecture
 Listening for the main idea
 Note-taking (2) - identifying noun phrases
 Noun phrases (1): Determiner + adjective + noun

Lectures (2)

Recognizing key factual information in a lecture
 Recognizing definitions in a lecture
 Note-taking (3) - abbreviations and symbols
 Using noun phrases in note-taking
 Noun phrases (4): Adjective or noun + noun, noun + prepositional phrase

Lectures (3)

Understanding the main ideas in a lecture
 Recognizing the language for introducing main ideas and supporting evidence
 Analysing types of supporting evidence: examples, definitions, and explanations
 Introducing supporting evidence

Lectures (4)

Understanding the organization of a lecture
 Recognizing and practising signposting language
 Note-taking (4) - using diagrams
 Signposting language (1): Introducing and transitioning between points, sequencing

Lectures (5)

Understanding the main points of a lecture
 Identifying spoken punctuation
 Note-taking (5) - taking linear notes
 Spoken punctuation: Stress, intonation, pausing

Lectures (6)

Taking notes on a description of a process
 Using notes to give a detailed explanation
 Recognizing referencing language

SPEAKING*Seminars (1)

Asking and answering questions
 Preparing for and taking part in a seminar discussion
 Summarizing and reporting on a seminar discussion
 Question forms (1): Information questions
 Expressing and exchanging opinions
 Reporting verbs

Seminars (2)

Recognizing language for referring to visual information
 Recognizing noun phrases in explanations
 Presenting visual information
 Asking for information, clarification, and repetition

Tutorials (1)

Reading a text to prepare for a tutorial
 Identifying assumptions in questions
 Participating in a tutorial discussion
 Question forms (2): Understanding assumptions in questions

Presentations (1)

Evaluating presentation guidelines
 Using signposting language to refer to visual information
 Giving a short presentation
 Signposting language (2): Referring to slides

Tutorials (2)

Interpreting and discussing written feedback
 Preparing spoken responses to written feedback
 Understanding and responding to suggestions

Presentations (2)

Analysing and referring to the structure of a poster
 Responding to requests for further details
 Giving a short poster presentation
 Sentence structure (3): Wh-clauses in spoken descriptions

VOCABULARY*Using a dictionary

Working out the meaning of unknown words
 Using a monolingual dictionary

Building academic vocabulary

Becoming familiar with academic vocabulary
 Recording information about academic vocabulary

Inferring meaning

Inferring the meaning of unknown words in sentences
 Using prefixes to infer meaning

Classification

Categorizing words
 Creating and using classification phrases

Collocation

Creating adjective + noun collocations
 Using verb + noun collocations

Suffixes

Building word families through suffixes
 Using multiple suffixes to build more complex words

READING

WRITING

7

CULTURE Page 103

Academic focus:
Comparison and contrast

Textbooks (5)

Reading and writing extended definitions
Recognizing and categorizing similarities and differences
Noticing in-text references
Identifying and using comparison and contrast language
Comparison and contrast language (1): Grammatical categories

Comparison essays

Organizing ideas and writing an outline
Using comparison and contrast language
Self-editing and correcting
Comparison and contrast language (2): Subordinators

8

INTERPRETATION Page 119

Academic focus:
Fact and opinion

Journals

Recognizing the difference between fact and opinion
Identifying the purpose and sections of a text
Identifying stance and perspective
In-text references: Author-date systems

Citation and referencing

Incorporating and evaluating cited material in an essay
Using reporting structures
Writing an essay which incorporates references and avoids plagiarism
Introducing citations: Reporting verbs, it and there structures, nouns

9

PERSUASION Page 135

Academic focus:
Developing an argument

Textbooks (6)

Identifying the main and supporting arguments
Identifying persuasive language
Persuasive language: Adjective phrases
Conditional structures: If and *unless

Argument essays

Organizing and outlining ideas
Stating and supporting the main argument
Synthesizing citations, evidence, and explanation
Synthesizing arguments and citations
Exemplification: Alternatives to conditional structures with *if

10

CONNECTION Page 151

Academic focus:
Cause and effect

Textbooks (7)

Understanding cause and effect phenomena in different fields
Identifying language to express cause and effect relationships
Note-taking (8) - representing cause and effect relationships in diagram form
Cause and effect language (1): Different structures

Cause and effect essays

Planning and structuring a cause and effect essay
Using cause and effect language
Writing a cause and effect essay
Cause and effect language (2): *Result
Cause and effect language (3): Nouns, verbs, and prepositional phrases

11

TECHNOLOGY Page 167

Academic focus:
Evaluation

Textbooks (8)

Identifying author evaluation of original material
Identifying and understanding evaluation language
Evaluation language (1): Nouns and adjectives
Evaluation language (2): Evaluative questions

Problem-solution essays

Recognizing and using evaluation language
Recognizing and using hedging language
Writing and evaluating a problem-solution essay
Evaluation language (3): Different structures
Hedging language (2): Impersonal structures with It and *There

12

INDEPENDENCE Page 183

Academic focus:
Independent learning

Textbooks (9)

Summarizing information to make notes
Annotating a text with margin notes
Linking text: -ing forms

Examination essays

Writing headings and paragraphs
Maximizing coherence in an essay
Responding to instruction verbs in examination questions
Dealing with timed writing
Verbs in essay titles (2)
Sentence structure (4): Presenting information

Glossary of grammatical and academic terms page 199

Language reference page 200
Additional reference material page 209

Writing: sample answers page 213

LISTENING*Lectures (7)

Reading to prepare for a lecture
 Listening to confirm predictions about content and structure
 Note-taking (6) - taking detailed notes
 Recapping

Interviews

Recognizing different perspectives in an interview
 Note-taking (7) - identifying key points related to perspectives and stance
 Responding to interviews using follow-up questions
 Perspective and stance language:
 Expressing opinions

Lectures (8)

Understanding the main points of an argument
 Recognizing how evidence is presented to support an argument
 Identifying and using emphasizing strategies
 Emphasizing (1): Different strategies

Lectures (9)

Recognizing connections including cause and effect relationships
 Recognizing a synthesis of ideas from different disciplines
 Cause and effect language (4):
 Conjunctions

Lectures (10)

Recognizing analysis and evaluation stages in a lecture
 Recognizing language for introducing evaluation
 Emphasizing (2): Evaluation

Lectures (11)

Taking notes on an extended extract
 Comparing and revising notes

Additional material from units
 page 221

SPEAKING*Seminars (3)

Summarizing and building on what the speaker says
 Giving a short, informal presentation in a seminar
 Taking part in a seminar discussion

Informal discussions

Assessing and taking part in informal discussions
 Interpreting and using intonation
 Accessing discussions

Seminars (4)

Evaluating the presentation of arguments in a seminar
 Presenting a main and supporting argument plus evidence and explanation
 Responding to other people's arguments
 Speculating and reflecting

Presentations (3)

Explaining connections between phenomena
 Analysing and using effective presentation notes
 Giving and responding to feedback

Presentations (4)

Identifying the key information in a presentation
 Researching a short presentation
 Giving and evaluating a short presentation

Presentations (5)

Preparing for script independence in presentations
 Responding to participants' comments and questions
 Giving a presentation
 Giving feedback: Modal verbs

Video and audio transcripts page 223

VOCABULARY*General & technical meanings

Identifying general and technical meanings
 Categorizing and learning general and technical meanings

Prefixes

Understanding the meanings of prefixes
 Using prefixes to complete words in context

Synonyms and formality

Using synonyms in phrases
 Deciding on the formality of synonyms
 Rewriting phrases using synonyms

Cohesive noun phrases

Summarizing text using cohesive nouns
 Using cohesive noun phrases in a text

Phrasal & prepositional verbs

Using prepositional verbs
 Using phrasal and prepositional verbs

Review of learning

Proofreading to review aspects of vocabulary
 Planning strategies for extending your vocabulary

List of sources for texts page 239