

Contents

the training of listening comprehension skills as a decisive factor in the development of children's language skills.

Introduction

1 What is Do and Understand? . . . . .	4
2 How do children learn? . . . . .	4
2.1 How do children learn to talk in the mother tongue? . . . . .	4
2.2 Teaching children a foreign language . . . . .	5
3 Teaching with Do and Understand . . . . .	6
3.1 Basic techniques . . . . .	7
• Preparation for the class . . . . .	7
• Setting the context for the stories . . . . .	7
• Introducing vocabulary . . . . .	7
• Teaching the stories . . . . .	10
3.2 Anchoring techniques . . . . .	14
• Reconstructing by first letters . . . . .	14
• Staging the story dramatically . . . . .	15
• Scrambled sentences . . . . .	17
• Putting the story back in order . . . . .	17
• Puzzle . . . . .	17
• What's wrong? . . . . .	18
• Memory . . . . .	18
• Show me the picture . . . . .	19
• Show me the action . . . . .	19
• Using the worksheets in Do and Understand . . . . .	20
3.3 Further application of Do and Understand . . . . .	22
• From reproduction to production . . . . .	22
• Encouraging creative production . . . . .	22
4 Authors' acknowledgments . . . . .	23
5 Suggested reading . . . . .	23
Story texts . . . . .	23
Photocopiable worksheets . . . . .	27