
Outline of Contents

	Summary	1
A	Introduction	13
B	Societal Conditions for Solving Global Environmental Problems	17
	1 Environmental Awareness and Environmental Education	19
	2 Exchange of Know-how and Technology Transfer	53
	3 Institutions and Organizations	66
	4 Growth and Distribution of the World's Population	81
C	International Conventions Aimed at Solving Global Environmental Problems	97
	1 The Framework Convention on Climate Change – Berlin and its Aftermath	99
	2 The Montreal Protocol – An Example for Successful Environmental Policy	125
	3 The Convention on the Law of the Sea – Towards the Global Protection of the Seas	136
	4 The Desertification Convention - A First Step Towards the Protection of Soils	157
	5 The Biodiversity Convention – The Implementation Is Yet to Come	164
	6 Protection of Forests: Protocol or Convention?	178
	7 The GATT/WTO Regime – The Greening of World Trade	184
D	General Conclusions and Recommendations	197
E	Annex: Notes on the Inverse Scenario in Section C 1.3	201
F	References	209
G	The Council	229
	Index	233