

Contents

Table of Cases	xi
Table of Legislation	xv
1. Turning Copyright on its Head?	1
Roads to Alexandria	3
Digitization as 'Moral Imperative'	8
Preservation, Access, Computation	11
The 'Head-Turning' Traits of Mass Digitization	15
2. Technological Transformative Use	19
Expanding Fair Use in US Copyright	21
Looking for Flexibility in EU Copyright	34
3. Automated Text Processing and Data Mining	45
From Information Retrieval to Value Extraction	47
Is Copying for Machines Still Copying?	51
Automated Text Processing in Europe	56
Need for a New Copyright Exception?	61
4. Orphan Works	70
The Orphan Work Problem as a Structural Inefficiency of Copyright	73
Factoring Orphans into Copyright	76
Out-of-Distribution Works	88
5. Digital Monopolies	92
Digitization Projects as 'Adverse Possessors'?	93
Acquiring Entitlements on New Uses	97
Locking Digital Archives through the Sui Generis Database Right	99
Public-Private Partnerships and Preferential Uses	104
Unlocking Digital Monopolies: Competition Law and Refusal to License	110
6. Integrity	116
Integrity Standards	116
A Right to Preserve the Public Sphere	119
Works Transplants	123
Structural and Contextual Integrity	126
Loss of Quality: Technological Necessity and Consent	127
Truthful Reception of the Work	130

Fragmentation and the 'Right to Quote'	131
Indexing and Search	135
Tying and (Automated) Association	136
7. Works and Data: Towards a Unitary Regulatory Framework	139
From Copies to Content to Data	140
Rights in Personal Data and in Works: Common Justificatory Grounds	143
Digital Libraries as 'Cultural Genome' and the Regulation of Genetic Databases	148
Data Protection Law and Copyright Analogues	152
Drawing the Line between Independent Exploitation and Supportive Action -	156
Bibliography	160
Index	173