

Content

Preface.....	9
Abbreviations.....	13
Introduction.....	15
1 Implementation and Enforcement of EU Environmental Law.....	29
1.1 Introductory remarks.....	29
1.2 Definition of implementation.....	30
1.3 Obligation to implement EU environmental law.....	31
1.4 Implementation monitoring.....	32
1.5 Problems and challenges of implementation.....	33
1.6 Environmental infringements.....	35
1.7 Enforcement of the EU environmental law.....	36
1.8 Infringement procedure.....	37
1.8.1 First round.....	37
1.8.2 Second round.....	39
1.9 EU Pilot: speeding the infringements.....	40
1.10 Statistics on Visegrad countries.....	42
2 Natura 2000.....	45
2.1 Natura 2000: new approach to biodiversity protection in Central European countries.....	45
2.2 Natura 2000 in the Czech Republic.....	49
2.2.1 Nature condition and state of biodiversity in the Czech Republic.....	49
2.2.2 The Czech legal regulation of nature protection.....	52
2.2.3 Legal regulation of Natura 2000 in the Czech Republic.....	55
2.2.4 Reality of the Natura 2000 protection in the Czech Republic and infringement of EU law.....	58
2.2.5 Concluding remarks.....	68
2.3 Natura 2000 in Hungary.....	69
2.3.1 Nature conservation legislation in Hungary.....	69
2.3.2 International agreements in nature conservation within which Hungary is a party.....	74

2.3.3	Legal background of the Natura 2000.....	75
2.3.4	Constitutional problems in connection with the designation of the areas.....	78
2.3.5	Problems of the management plans.....	80
2.3.6	Projects and the likely significant effects.....	80
2.3.7	State aid, state support.....	84
2.3.8	Examples of judgements.....	85
2.4	Natura 2000 in Poland.....	86
2.5	Natura 2000 in Slovakia.....	101
2.5.1	Historical survey of territorial protection.....	101
2.5.2	International nature conservation membership of Slovakia.....	103
2.5.3	Nature protection law in Slovakia.....	103
2.5.4	European nature conservation law.....	105
2.5.5	Impact assessment and Natura 2000.....	106
2.5.6	The Slovak nature conservation law and the transposition of the European directives.....	106
2.5.7	Compensation for the harm caused by Natura 2000.....	107
2.5.8	Institutional background of the Natura 2000.....	109
2.5.9	Court practice.....	110
2.5.10	Preparation of the Act on the Nature and Landscape Protection.....	112
2.6	Summary.....	113
3	Waste Law.....	115
3.1	Introduction.....	115
3.1.1	Waste hierarchy.....	116
3.1.2	Definition of waste and its interpretation by the ECJ.....	117
3.1.3	Planning and programming.....	119
3.1.4	Role of the (national) authorities: permits and registration.....	119
3.1.5	Waste management as public service: the influence of other EU policies on waste.....	120
3.1.6	Liability.....	120
3.2	Waste Law in the Czech Republic.....	121
3.2.1	State and method of the transposition of the EU law.....	121
3.2.2	Scope of the Waste Act.....	122
3.2.3	Different waste definitions.....	123
3.2.4	Transposition status of the EWC list.....	124

3.2.5	Waste management plans in the Czech legal system .....	125
3.2.6	Role of permits in the Czech waste law .....	126
3.2.7	Management of municipal solid waste in the Czech Republic .....	127
3.2.8	Structure of the liability in the Czech waste law .....	129
3.3	Waste Law in Hungary .....	132
3.3.1	State and method of the transposition of the EU legislation .....	132
3.3.2	Scope of the Ht. ....	134
3.3.3	Different waste definitions .....	135
3.3.4	Transposition status of the EWC list .....	136
3.3.5	Waste management plans in the Hungarian legal system ...	136
3.3.6	Role of the permits in the Hungarian waste management law .....	138
3.3.7	Management of the municipal solid waste in Hungary .....	140
3.3.8	Structure of the liability in the Hungarian waste law .....	144
3.4	Waste Law in Poland .....	147
3.4.1	Polish waste law till the end of 2012 .....	147
3.4.1	New Polish Act on Waste of 2012 .....	159
3.5	Waste Law in Slovakia .....	163
3.5.1	System of legal regulation and the transposition of EU law .....	163
3.5.2	Transposition of definitions .....	166
3.5.3	Waste classification .....	168
3.5.4	Waste management plans .....	169
3.5.5	Permits and registrations .....	170
3.5.6	Ways and methods of municipal solid waste managing .....	171
3.5.7	Liability .....	172
3.5.8	Administrative and court practice .....	172
3.6	Summary .....	173
4	Environmental Impact Assessment .....	177
4.1	Introduction .....	177
4.1.1	Environmental impact assessment .....	179
4.1.2	Strategic environmental assessment .....	182
4.2	Environmental impact assessment in the Czech Republic .....	184
4.2.1	Development of the Czech EIA legislation .....	184
4.2.2	Subject, purpose and scope of impact assessment .....	185
4.2.3	Integrated or separate procedure? .....	186

4.2.4	Competent authorities .....	187
4.2.5	Course of the EIA procedure.....	188
4.2.6	Environmental impact statement.....	192
4.2.7	Public participation in EIA.....	194
4.2.8	Strategic environmental assessment.....	201
4.2.9	Case studies from the Czech Republic.....	203
4.2.10	Concluding remarks .....	206
4.3	Environmental impact assessment in Hungary.....	207
4.3.1	Implementation of the EU legislation on EIA.....	208
4.3.2	Method of the implementation of the EU directives.....	209
4.3.3	Preliminary environmental impact assessment and preliminary environmental impact consultation.....	210
4.3.4	Method of the environmental impact assessment .....	211
4.3.5	Several special regulations of the EIA in Hungary .....	216
4.3.6	Single environment authorization .....	217
4.3.7	The follow-up stage: the environmental audit and benchmarking .....	218
4.3.8	Concluding remarks .....	221
4.4	Environmental impact assessment in Poland .....	221
4.4.1	Development of EIA/SEA regulation in Poland .....	221
4.4.2	Environmental impact assessment .....	223
4.4.3	Implementation of the annexes I–II of the EIA Directive... ..	225
4.4.4	Screening.....	227
4.4.5	Scoping.....	227
4.4.6	Method of preparation of environmental information .....	228
4.4.7	Public participation in the EIA.....	228
4.4.8	Effects of the EIA.....	230
4.4.9	Post-project analysis.....	232
4.4.10	Environmental impact assessments of plans and programmes (SEA).....	232
4.4.11	Concluding remarks .....	236
4.5	Environmental impact assessment in Slovakia.....	236
4.5.1	Introductory remarks.....	236
4.5.2	Act No. 24/2006 Coll. and the EIA Directive .....	239
4.5.3	Act No. 24/2006 Coll. and the SEA Directive .....	242
4.5.4	Act No. 24/2006 Coll. and the Aarhus Convention .....	244
4.5.5	Difficulties in application of the impact assessment legislation .....	245
4.6	Summary.....	247

5	Access to Justice in Environmental Matters.....	251
5.1	Introduction .....	251
5.1.1	Aarhus Convention and the EU legislation.....	251
5.1.2	Definition of the key terms.....	256
5.2	Access to justice in environmental matters in the Czech Republic.....	257
5.2.1	Introduction .....	257
5.2.2	Aarhus Convention and the first pillar .....	258
5.2.3	Aarhus Convention and the second pillar .....	262
5.2.4	Aarhus Convention and the third pillar.....	270
5.2.5	General requirements .....	272
5.2.6	Implementation of Art. 6 of the Directive 2003/4/EC.....	272
5.2.7	Art. 11 of the EIA Directive.....	272
5.2.8	Art. 25 of the Directive on Industrial Emissions.....	273
5.3	Access to justice in environmental matters in Hungary .....	273
5.3.1	The first pillar: access to information in environmental matters.....	274
5.3.2	The second pillar: participation of the public in decision-making.....	278
5.3.3	The third pillar: access to justice against the decisions.....	283
5.4	Access to justice in environmental matters in Poland.....	286
5.4.1	Introductory remarks.....	286
5.4.2	Judicial control over access to information on environmental matters.....	288
5.4.3	Judicial control over public participation in decision concerning environmental matters .....	291
5.4.4	Concluding remarks .....	295
5.5	Access to justice in environmental matters in Slovakia .....	296
5.5.1	Aarhus Convention and the first pillar .....	296
5.5.2	Aarhus Convention and the second pillar .....	297
5.5.3	Aarhus Convention and the third pillar .....	298
5.5.4	General requirements of the Aarhus Convention.....	300
5.5.5	Aarhus Convention as a source of the EU law.....	302
5.6	Access to justice in environmental matters in Croatia .....	306
5.6.1	Aarhus Convention and the first pillar .....	306
5.6.2	Aarhus Convention and the second pillar .....	309
5.6.3	Aarhus Convention and the third pillar.....	310
5.6.4	General requirements of the Aarhus Convention.....	314
5.6.5	Aarhus Convention as a source of the EU law.....	316
5.7	Summary.....	317

6 Conclusion.....	321
Table of cases.....	323
Bibliography .....	327
Authors.....	333