

---

CONTENTS TO THE ENGLISH EDITION

---

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Foreword to the English edition  | 7  |
| 1. The life stories of young homeless people   | 9  |
| 1.1 Introduction   | 9  |
| 1.2 Research objectives and methods and a description of the group under examination             | 11 |
| 1.3 The life stories of young homeless people  | 14 |
| 2. The childhood and emerging adulthood of young homeless people                                 | 17 |
| 2.1 Family – the opinions of young homeless people regarding their home life and their childhood | 17 |
| 2.1.1 The problems of alcoholic, violent, or mentally ill parents                                | 21 |
| 2.1.2 The relationship of young homeless people to their parents                                 | 26 |
| 2.1.3 Problems arising as a consequence of the breakup of the original family                    | 32 |
| 2.1.4 A home where the clients felt unwanted   | 37 |
| 2.1.5 Grandparents as a substitute source of security and safety                                 | 40 |
| 2.1.6 Foster parents or institutions   | 41 |
| 2.2 School – the opinions of young homeless people regarding their scholastic success            | 46 |
| 2.2.1 The behavioural problems of young homeless people at school age and during adolescence     | 50 |
| 2.3 Contemporaries – relationships with peers during childhood and adolescence                   | 52 |
| 2.4 Summary of the childhood and adolescence of young homeless people                            | 55 |
| 3. The beginnings of homelessness  | 59 |
| 3.1 The decision to sleep rough and its cause  | 60 |
| 3.1.1 Drug and alcohol addiction   | 63 |
| 3.1.2 Inability and unwillingness to work systematically   | 65 |
| 3.1.3 Inability to manage finances and indebtedness  | 66 |
| 3.1.4 Inexperience and an inability to organise life   | 67 |
| 3.1.5 Criminal activities  | 68 |
| 3.1.6 The influence of a problematic partner   | 69 |
| 3.2 Life on the street   | 70 |

|               |  |     |
|---------------|--|-----|
| 3.2.1         | Obtaining means of support   | 74  |
| 3.2.2         | Accommodation and sleeping rough   | 88  |
| 3.2.3         | Life on the street has its negative points   | 96  |
| 3.2.4         | Positive aspects to life on the street   | 105 |
| 3.2.5         | Change of values and norms   | 108 |
| 3.3           | Relationships with people on the street  | 109 |
| 3.3.1         | Interpersonal relationships within the frameworkof the homeless community                              | 110 |
| 3.3.2         | The opinions of homeless youth regarding friendship and partnerships                                       | 119 |
| 3.4           | Relationships with people outside the homeless community   | 124 |
| 3.5           | Young homeless people and parenthood   | 126 |
| 3.6           | The mental health of young homeless people   | 129 |
| 3.6.1         | Mental health disorders and young homeless people  | 132 |
| 3.6.2         | The use of addictive substances among young homeless people  | 138 |
| 3.7           | Leaving home to sleep rough – a summary  | 143 |
| 4.            | The opinion young homeless people have of themselvesand their transformation                           | 147 |
| 4.1           | The personality of young homeless people   | 147 |
| 4.1.1         | How young homeless people evaluate their own personality   | 150 |
| 4.1.2         | A tendency to aggressive behaviour   | 154 |
| 4.1.3         | The needs, fears and wishes of young homeless people   | 159 |
| 4.2           | The transformation that takes place as a consequence of life on the street                                 | 177 |
| 4.2.1         | Young homeless people's opinion of their own transformation  | 180 |
| 4.3           | Summary of how young homeless people perceive themselves and ratetheir transformation                  | 187 |
| 5.            | How young homeless people visualise their future   | 189 |
| 5.1           | The requirements and barriers to returning to mainstream society –the opinion of young homeless people | 194 |
| 5.2           | Change to the social standing of young homeless people after two years                                     | 206 |
| 5.3           | A summary of what young people think of their futureand a possible return to society                   | 208 |
| Conclusion    |  | 209 |
| Appendix      |  | 211 |
| Bibliography  |  | 213 |
| Subject Index |  | 221 |
| Name Index    |  | 223 |