

CONTENTS

Preface to the Morningside Edition	ix
Introduction	xv
I. Sakamoto's Japan	3
1. The Tokugawa Setting	3
2. Tosa	20
3. Tosa at Mid-Century	36
II. The Response to the West	51
1. The Tokugawa Response	51
2. Reforms in Tosa	67
3. The Education of Sakamoto Ryōma	77
III The Loyalist Years	93
1. The Shishi Type and Ideal	95
2. The Tosa Loyalist Party	104
3. The Shishi in National Politics	124
4. The Decline of Loyalist Extremism	137
IV. Service with Katsu	153
1. Katsu Rintarō	154
2. Sakamoto and Katsu	160
3. The Hyōgo Naval Academy	166
4. The Dismissal of Katsu	178
V. The Satsuma-Chōshū Alliance	185
1. Saigō Takamori and Satsuma	186
2. Nakaoka Shintarō and Chōshū	195
3. From Shishi to Statesmen	204
4. The Alliance	211
VI. The Kaientai	223
1. The Attack in the Teradaya	224
2. The Second Chōshū Expedition	232
3. Changes in Tosa	241
4. The Nagasaki Scene	252
5. Reinstatement and Support for the Kaientai	259

CONTENTS

VII. The Eight-Point Program	271
1. The Advantage of Tosa Support	272
2. The Sogun Yoshinobu (Keiki)	278
3. The Kyoto Conference	286
4. Program for a New Government	294
5. The Icarus Affair	304
VIII. Restoration	312
1. Yōdō's Petition to Keiki	312
2. Preparations for War	317
3. The End of the Bakufu	326
4. Sakamoto and the New Government	335
5. The Warriors Become Kami	342
IX. The Restoration in Tosa	347
1. The States of Response to the West	347
2. The Leaders and their Aims	355
3. The Problem of Class Interest	368
Chronological Tables	379
List of Works Cited	382
A Note on Sources	389
Biographical Notes	401
Index	417

Map follows page 3