

Contents

Military oath of allegiance to the Armed Forces of the Czech Republic	4
President Havel for the Armed Forces	6
Armed Forces of the Czech Republic	8
Introduction	9
1 Reforms and transformation of the Czech Armed Forces	12
2 Continuing democratisation and beginning to integrate 1993–1994	18
3 NATO integration phase 1995–1998	43
4 The 1999–2004 reform phase	58
5 The 2005–2012 transformation phase	73
6 Czech Armed Forces' anniversary 1993–2012	96
7 Czech defence transformation ongoing	98
Czech Armed Forces' servicemembers on foreign deployed operations	108
Public opinion on Defence and the Military	140
Military Office of the President and the Castle Guard	154
Military Police	160
Military Intelligence and the 601st Special Forces Group	164
Military History Institute	170
Annexes	176
Annex 1 Military ranks and rank corps	177
Annex 2 Ministers of Defence of the Czech Republic	178
Annex 3 Chiefs of General Staff of the Armed Forces of the Czech Republic	179
Annex 4 Ambassadors of the Czech Republic to NATO	179
Annex 5 Personnel strength of the Ministry of Defence	180
Annex 6 Defence budget	181
Annex 7 List of major weapon and equipment systems	182
Annex 8 Czech Armed Forces' foreign deployments and missions	184
Czech Armed Forces' activities in UN observer missions	194
Czech Armed Forces' activities in OSCE observer missions	196
Czech Armed Forces' activities in missions of other international organisations	197
Annex 9 Armament and modernisation programs	207
Annex 10 MoD defence decorations	179
Annex 11 List of General officers commissioned since 1993	208
Annex 12 Standard uniforms of the Armed Forces of the Czech Republic	216
Annex 13 ASC DUKLA – a professional European defence sport club	220
Annex 14 Organisational structure of the Ministry of Defence of the Czech Republic at 1 Nov 2014	222
Organisational structure of the Ministry of Defence of the Czech Republic at 1 Jan 2015	224
Annex 15 Czech MoD and Armed Forces' important and remembrance days	226
Acronyms	228
Sources	234
Authors of main chapters	238
Acknowledgements	239