

THE ASIAN HARM REDUCTION NETWORK

Supporting Responses to HIV and Injecting Drug Use in Asia

Contents

Foreword by UNAIDS.....	5
Foreword by the Chair of the Asian Harm Reduction Network.....	6
<hr/>
I. Executive summary.....	8
<hr/>
II. Introduction.....	10
<hr/>
III. Background.....	10
A. Epidemiology of drug use in Asia.....	11
B. Drug users' vulnerability to HIV/AIDS.....	12
C. Drug use and HIV/AIDS: What should be done?.....	15
D. Drug and HIV/AIDS policies in Asia.....	15
E. The pioneers of a comprehensive approach.....	18
<hr/>
IV. The birth of the Asian Harm Reduction Network.....	20
A. Establishing a technical resource network.....	21
B. Developing and sustaining the network.....	22
C. Adjusting the management structure.....	23
D. Membership.....	24
<hr/>
V. Major activities of AHRN.....	26
A. Information dissemination.....	26
B. Capacity building.....	27
C. Advocacy.....	27
D. Networking.....	30
<hr/>
VI. Assessing the impact of AHRN.....	31
A. Sharing information.....	31
B. Developing capacity.....	33
C. Advocacy.....	33
D. Expanding responses to HIV and injecting drug use.....	34
<hr/>
VII. Future directions.....	36
A. Sustainability.....	36
B. Representing and involving members.....	37
C. Accessing information.....	38
D. Network activities.....	39
<hr/>
VIII. Discussion: The benefits of harm-reduction networks.....	40
A. Strengthening responses and reducing isolation.....	40
B. Setting norms.....	41
C. Drawing expertise together.....	41
<hr/>
IX. Conclusion.....	43
<hr/>
X. Lessons learned from AHRN.....	44
A. Creating and managing AHRN.....	44
B. Impact of activities.....	44
C. Network issues.....	45