

CONTENTS

Introduction – War Injuries Smrčka V. .....	5
“War” Injuries in Eneolithic in Bohemia Based on Study of Human Skeletal Remains Shbat A., Růžičková I. .....	13
Injuries on Human Skeletal Remains from the Moravian Early Bronze Age (Czech Republic) Pankowská A. .....	25
The Warfare of the Prehistoric Aegean from the Point of View of Injuries (On the Basis of Archaeological, Literary and Iconographical Sources) Alušík T. .....	45
Weapons and Trauma in the Roman Period: Cases from the Cemeteries in Rusovce-Gerulata II and Abrahám Hlavenková L., Smrčka V. .....	61
Posttraumatic Changes on the Bones from Lužice (CZ) – The Migration Period Cemetery (6 th Century AD) Svenssonová M., Smrčka V. .....	75
Anthropological Assessment of Skeletal Remains of a Princess Buried at the “Žuráň” Barrow (South Moravia, Czech Republic) Drozdová E., Unger J., Smrčka V., Němečková A., Krupa P. .....	79
Warriors of Great Moravia: The Interpretation of Cranial Injuries from the Middle Ages in the Context of Archaeological Data (Pohansko near Břeclav) Kalová K., Drozdová E., Smrčka V. .....	93
Find of Skull with a Crossbow Projectile from the 15 th Century Koscelník P., Kuželka V. .....	111
War Injuries from the Napoleonic Battles in Moravia Horáčková L., Vargová L. .....	123

War Injuries in the World War I Smrčka V., Mádlová V. .....	131
Biomechanical Analysis of Extreme Dynamic Loading on Organism Straus J. .....	157
Trauma Care and Recent Development in Field Surgery Klein L. .....	165
General Index .....	173