

CONTENTS

Preface	xi
Principal Abbreviations	xvii
Greek and Latin Authors	xxii
Translations of Classical Texts	xxiii
INTRODUCTION
I. Contents	4
II. Structure	9
III. Authorship: Single or Composite	12
IV. Language and Style	14
V. Genre	18
VI. Date	20
VII. Religious Ideas	25
1. Preexistence and Immortality of the Soul	25
2. Eschatology	32
3. Torah and Sophia	33
4. Logos and Sophia	38
5. Pursuing Wisdom	40
6. The Nature and Efficacy of Wisdom	42
7. Universalism and Particularism	43
8. Freedom and Determinism	46
VIII. Wisdom of Solomon and Philo of Alexandria	59
IX. Purpose	63
X. Manuscripts and Versions	64
XI. Status and Influence	66
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	70
COMMENTARIES	92
I. Pre-Nineteenth Century	92
II. Nineteenth Century	93
III. Twentieth Century	94

TRANSLATION and NOTES

A.	Wisdom's Gift of Immortality (1 – 6:21)	98
	I. Exhortation to Justice which brings immortality (1:1–15)	99
	II. Speech of the wicked who have covenanted with Death (1:16 – 2:24)	111
	Problems of Reward and Retribution (III–V)
	III. Sufferings of the immortal just only a trial (3:1–12)	124
	IV. Sterility of the virtuous will ultimately be converted to fruitfulness (3:13 – 4:6)	130
	V. Early death a token of God's solicitous care (4:7–20)	136
	VI. Vindication of the just and Final Judgment (5:1–23)	144
	VII. Exhortation to Wisdom which is easily found and brings immortality and sovereignty (6:1–21)	151
B.	The Nature and Power of Wisdom and Solomon's Quest for Her (6:22 – 10:21)	158
	VIII. The nature of Wisdom and her mysteries will be revealed (6:22–25)	159
	Solomon's Speech (IX–XI)
	IX. Solomon is only a mortal (7:1–6)	162
	X. Solomon prefers Wisdom above all else (7:7–14)	167
	XI. God is sole source of all-encompassing Wisdom (7:15–22a)	172
	XII. Nature of Wisdom: her twenty-one attributes (7:22b–24)	178
	XIII. Fivefold metaphor describing Wisdom's essence and her unique efficacy (7:25 – 8:1)	184
	XIV. Solomon sought to make Wisdom his bride (8:2–16)	191
	XV. Wisdom a sheer gift of God's Grace (8:17–21)	197
	XVI. Without Wisdom no human enterprise can succeed (9:1–6)	200

XVII.	Without Wisdom Solomon could not reign (9:7-12)	203
XVIII.	Divine Wisdom brought men salvation (9:13-18)	206
An Ode to Wisdom's Saving Power in History (XIX-XX)
XIX.	From Adam to Moses (10:1-14)	210
XX.	The Exodus (10:15-21)	219
C. Divine Wisdom or Justice in the Exodus (11-19)
XXI.	First Antithesis: Nile water changed to blood, but Israelites obtained water from the desert rock (11:1-14)	225
Excursus I: Nature and Purpose of Divine Mercy (XXII-XXIV)
XXII.	God's Mercy toward the Egyptians and its causes (His Might the source of his merciful love) (11:15 - 12:2)	230
XXIII.	God's Mercy toward the Canaanites and its causes (12:3-18)	237
XXIV.	God's Mercy a model lesson for Israel (12:19-22)	243
XXV.	Return to theme of measure for measure and transition to second Excursus (12:23-27)	245
Excursus II: On Idolatry (XXVI-XXXI)
XXVI.	Mindless nature worship (13:1-9)	247
XXVII.	Wretched wooden-image making (13:10 - 14:11)	258
XXVIII.	Origin and evil consequences of idolatry (14:12-31)	269
XXIX.	Israel's immunity from idolatry (15:1-6)	281
XXX.	Malicious manufacture of clay figurines (15:7-13)	285
XXXI.	Folly of Egyptian idolatry (15:14-19)	289
XXXII.	Second Antithesis: Egyptians hunger through animal plague, but Israel enjoys exotic quail food (16:1-4)	292
XXXIII.	Third Antithesis: Egyptians slain by locusts and

	flies, but Israel survives a serpent attack through the bronze serpent, symbol of salvation (16:5-14)	294
XXXIV.	Fourth Antithesis: Egyptians plagued by thunderstorms, but Israel fed by a rain of manna (16:15-29)	297
XXXV.	Fifth Antithesis: Egyptians terrified by darkness, but Israel illuminated with bright light and guided through desert by a pillar of fire (17:1-18:4)	302
XXXVI.	Sixth Antithesis: Egyptian firstborn destroyed, but Israel protected and glorified (18:5-25)	313
XXXVII.	Seventh Antithesis: Egyptians drowned in the sea, but Israel passes safely through (19:1-9)	323
XXXVIII.	Retrospective review of God's wonders through which Nature was refashioned for Israel (19:10-12)	326
XXXIX.	Egypt more blameworthy than Sodom (19:13-17)	327
XL.	Transposition of the elements (19:18-21)	330
XLI.	Concluding doxology (19:22)	333

INDICES

Ancient Authors	334
Subjects	337
Scriptural References	342
Pseudepigrapha, Qumran, and Rabbinic Literature	353
Key to the Text	360