

CONTENTS

Illustrations	vii
Authors' acknowledgements	ix
Translators' acknowledgements	x
Introduction	xi
Introduction to the English edition	xiii
Translators' note on terminology	xv
Translators' notes on names	xvi
<hr/>
1. The Irish and Bohemian Society - An Irish Island in a Bohemian Sea	1
The road to emigration	1
The Irish Franciscans and soldiers	3
The Irish Franciscans and doctors	11
The Irish Franciscans and other Irishmen	14
The Irish Franciscans and the nobility	16
The Irish Franciscans and their Prague neighbours	21
<hr/>
2. Between the Emperor and the Archbishop (1629-1636)	25
The Irish province of the Order of Franciscans of the Stricter Observance: from the Atlantic to the Mediterranean and the Baltic	25
Fallon's mission	31
Patrick Fleming and his death	37
The college statutes: a view of the household	49
<hr/>
3. The Irish Franciscans in the Service of the Archbishops of Prague (1636-1692)	58
The seminary of Archbishop Harrach	60
Anthony Bruodin: the double exile of the Scotist scholar	76
The church by the Powder Gate	85
<hr/>
4. The Involuntary Path to Seclusion (1692-1730)	95
Prolonged tension in the college	95
"The Hibernians, for money"	106
Sapientia aedificavit sibi domum	110

5. The Disunited Crew of a Forgotten Ship (1730-1786)	128
The course of events	129
The protagonists: views from within	136
A vague resolution: the question of education and authority	141
The fading flame of Scotism	145
<hr/>
6. Ite, Missa Est	152
Conventus	153
Bona: mobilia et immobilia	160
<hr/>
7. Archives and Libraries
Manuscript sources	167
Period publications	167
Literature	171
<hr/>
Members of the Franciscan College of the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary in Prague (1629-1786)	177
Guardians of the Franciscan College of the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary in Prague (1629-1786)	197
Abbreviations	199
Index	200