

Table of Contents

Foreword	5
Introduction	7
Part I: ABOUT SEXUALITY – IN GENERAL	9
1.1 Sexuality and Selected Terms Related to Sexual Issues and Topics	11
1.2 Sexual Abuse, Including the Abuse of Persons with Intellectual Disability	21
1.3 Specific Approaches towards the Addicted and Sexuality	33
1.4 Helping Professions – the Professional’s Personality, Sexuality and the Client	51
1.5 Sexuality, Attitudes and Communication, Including Persons with Disabilities and Persons with Autism	61
1.6 Families and Individuals with Intellectual Disability	81
Part II: ABOUT SEXUALITY – LEARNING AND EDUCATION	89
2.1 A general overview of sexuality education in general public	91
2.2 Sex Education and Persons with Intellectual Disability and Autism	103
2.3 Sex education in school programmes for pre-school and elementary education	121
2.4 Education towards Sexual and Reproductive Health in the Curriculum of the Second Stage at Elementary School	131
2.5 Sex education in school educational programmes – specific attitudes towards education at practical and special elementary schools, one-year and two-year practical schools	143
Conclusion	152
Afterword	153
Summary	156
List of Authors	157