

Contents

0. Introduction.....	9
1. Nature as Symbolic Code.....	17
1.0. Introduction.....	17
1.1. Five tinai	18
1.2. Sample readings.....	22
1.3. Some basic concepts.....	25
2. Types of formulaic expressions in Sangam.....	31
2.1. Formulaic expressions – their types and properties.....	34
2.1.1. Underlying lexico-syntactical patterns.....	34
2.1.2. Some formal and structural characteristics.....	42
2.1.3. Figures of speech.....	50
2.2. Parallels in Sanskrit literature.....	67
2.3. Conclusion.....	69
A heretical postscriptum.....	71
3. Syntagmatics and symbolism of neytal	73
3.1. Formal description.....	76
3.2. Formulas and the question of orality.....	78
3.3. Significance of the literary signs.....	90
3.4. Conclusion.....	93
4. Formulas connected with mullai – attributive phrases.....	95
4.1. Simple attributes of mullai	97
4.2. Complex attributes of mullai	98
4.2.1. Nominal phrases.....	98
4.2.1.1 Attributes based on koṭi	99
4.2.1.2 Attributes based on vī	103
4.2.1.3 Attributes based on malar	105
4.2.1.4 Attributes based on ilai	107
4.2.1.5 Individual attributes.....	109

4.2.2. Verbal phrases (r.p.).....	112
4.3. Conclusion.....	123
5. Mullai as attribute, complex phrases, anthropomorphic contexts	125
5.1. Noun phrases.....	125
5.1.1. Simple phrases	125
5.1.2. Complex phrases	127
5.1.3. Concentric phrases	131
5.2. Part of verb phrases	134
5.2.1. Part of relative participle phrases	134
5.2.2. Predicative phrases.....	135
5.2.3. Objective phrases	136
5.3. Anthropomorphic contexts.....	137
5.3.1. Tooth – eyīru	138
5.3.2. Tooth – pal	138
5.3.3. Hair – katuppu (tresses)	139
5.3.4. Hair – kūntal (tresses).....	139
5.3.5. Forehead – nūtal	139
5.3.6. Mouth – vāy	140
5.3.7. Heart – neñcu	140
5.3.8. Combinations of body parts	141
Conclusion	142
6. Formulas used with marutam , kuriñci and pālai	143
6.0. Introduction	144
6.1. Presentation of the material	145
6.1.1. Marutam/marutu	145
6.1.2. Kuriñci	156
6.1.3. Pālai	159
6.2. Discussion.....	162
6.3. Conclusion.....	166
An afterthought	167
7. Nature as a bridge between Sangam and Kāvya – a neytal feature to be found in the Meghadūta ?.....	169
7.0. Introduction	169
7.1. Select descriptions of nature to be found in the Rāmāyaṇa	170
7.2. Neytal – Meghadūta	173
7.2.2. General circumstances	176

7.2.3. Specific symbolical circumstances and references.....	178
7.2.3.1 References to mutal	179
7.2.3.2 References to karu	179
7.3. Conclusion.....	186
8. References	191
9. Abbreviations.....	197
10. Czech summary.....	199
Květiny a formule	199
11. Indexes.....	203
General index	203
Index of names	210
References to karu	212
Elements of nature.....	212
Elements of nature (Latin names)	215
Body parts.....	216
Culture.....	216
Human beings	217
Index verborum.....	218
Tamil.....	218
Sanskrit.....	220
Prākṛit.....	221
Index locorum	222
Tamil texts.....	222
Sanskrit texts	229
Prākṛit texts	229
Dravidian Etymological Dictionary.....	229
12. Tamil frequency index.....	231
Frequency of single words	231
Frequency of nuclear and complex formulas	233