Table of Contents

Introduction 5

Theoretical Background 7

Philosophical foundations
Jarmila Pipeková 9

Sociological perspective
Karel Pančocha, Lenka Slepičková, Helena Vaďurová 12

Psychological background
Evžen Řehulka 24

Special educational background
Jarmila Pipeková 43

Terminological definition of intellectual disability
Jarmila Pipeková 57

Human rights as a rationale for the improvement of life of persons with intellectual disabilities 67

Human rights and their terminological definition
Jarmila Pipeková 68

Human rights in international documents
Jarmila Pipeková 72

Human rights and humanistic tendencies in the Czech territory
Jarmila Pipeková 79

Human rights and their applications to improve the quality of life of persons with intellectual disabilities
Jarmila Pipeková 87

Interdisciplinary cooperation and barriers to inclusive medical support 95

ICF and individual support of development and learning
Marie Vítková 96

Interdisciplinary cooperation
Marie Vítková 108

Barriers to inclusive medical support
Marie Vítková 113

Vocational training of students with special educational needs 119
Secondary education opportunities for students with special educational needs
Miroslava Bartoňová 120
Effect of resources available in the region on education and employment of students with intellectual disabilities
Marie Vítková 130

Employment opportunities for Individuals with intellectual disabilities 145
Employment Act with respect to persons with intellectual disabilities
Jarmila Pipeková 146
Partnerships and family life of people with intellectual disabilities
Jarmila Pipeková 153

Social inclusion of persons with intellectual disabilities 155
The Social Services Act and real-life examples
Marie Vítková 156
Quality standards in social services
Marie Vítková 166
Housing factor and leisure time of people with intellectual disabilities – current trends
Jarmila Pipeková, Marie Vítková 178

Summary 191

Bibliography 193

List of figures and tables 206

Name index 207

Subject index 212