

V
C O N T E N T S

| | |
|---|----|
| The 18th century novel - general characterization | 1 |
| Ian WATT: Truth to individual experience and the novel..... | 2 |
| Frederick R. KARL: The novel as subversion: The picaresque tradition as the background of one stream in the early English novel | 4 |
| Ralph FOX: Two approaches to reality in the 18th century novel | 6 |
| | |
| Daniel Defoe | 10 |
| | |
| Walter ALLEN: Daniel Defoe's circumstantial method | 11 |
| Ian WATT: Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe as "homo economicus" .. | 13 |
| Dorothy Van GHENT: Defoe's ambiguity in Moll Flanders | 15 |
| | |
| Jonathan Swift | 17 |
| | |
| Ernest A. BAKER: Swift's debt to Defoe's realism | 18 |
| James SUTHERLAND: The main formal principle of Swift's satire .. | 20 |
| | |
| Samuel Richardson | 24 |
| | |
| Arnold KETTLE: Bourgeois hypocrisy in Richardson's Pamela | 25 |
| Dorothy Van GHENT: Richardson's Clarissa Harlowe as an antithesis of Defoe's Moll Flanders | 27 |
| | |
| Tobias Smollett | 29 |
| | |
| Walter ALLEN: Smollett - the caricaturist | 30 |
| John PRESTON: The extremeness of Smollett's art | 32 |
| | |
| Henry Fielding | 35 |
| | |
| Arnold KETTLE: Henry Fielding's panoramic vision of society ... | 36 |
| Ian WATT: The drawbacks of Fielding's external approach to character | 37 |
| Dorothy Van GHENT: Nature and appearance in Fielding's Tom Jones | 39 |

VI

| | |
|--|----|
| Laurence Sterne | 42 |
| Arnold KETTLE: The eccentricity of Sterne's Tristram Shandy | 43 |
| Frederick R. KARL: Tristram Shandy - a picaresque novel? | 46 |
| Frederick R. KARL: The conception of time in Tristram Shandy .. | 48 |
| D.W. JEFFERSON: Another view of the conception of time in Tristram Shandy | 50 |
| Patricia WAUGH: Tristram Shandy - the prototype for the contemporary metafictional novel | 52 |
| Jane Austen | 54 |
| Ioan WILLIAMS: The novels of Jane Austen; conservatism and innovation | 55 |
| Walter ALLEN: The art of Jane Austen | 57 |
| Norman SHERRY: The world of Jane Austen's novels | 59 |
| Malcolm BRADBURY: The pattern of values in Jane Austen's Emma | 60 |
| Malcolm BRADBURY: The handling of the point of view in Emma ... | 65 |
| Walter Scott | 68 |
| E.M.FORSTER: An assessment of Walter Scott in Aspects of the Novel | 69 |
| Walter ALLEN: Scott's impact on the development of European fiction | 70 |
| Arnold KETTLE: The breadth and depth of reference in Walter Scott as compared to Jane Austen | 73 |
| Ioan WILLIAMS: The art of Walter Scott - a present-day view | 75 |
| The Victorian novel - general characterization | 77 |
| Ioan WILLIAMS: Romantic to Victorian: the novel after Scott | 78 |
| Raymond WILLIAMS: The social and cultural background of the English novel in the mid-19th century | 82 |
| Walter ALLEN: The later Victorian novel | 86 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Charles Dickens | 89 |
| Ioan WILLIAMS: The realism of Dickens | 90 |
| Raymond WILLIAMS: Dickens and the new urban reality | 93 |
| Arnold KETTLE: The appeal of Oliver Twist | 98 |
| G.B.SHAW: Criticism of bourgeois order in Hard Times | 100 |
| Edwin MUIR: A broadening of vision; Bleak House and Little Dorrit | 105 |
| David SKILTON: The nightmare vision of Little Dorrit | 115 |
| William Makepeace Thackeray | 118 |
| David MASSON: The realism of Thackeray as compared to the realism of Dickens | 119 |
| Walter ALLEN: Vanity Fair as a social novel | 123 |
| Arnold KETTLE: The social undertones of Becky Sharp's portrait | 126 |
| Dorothy VAN GHENT: The significance of image in Thackeray's creative method | 129 |
| Walter ALLEN: Vanity Fair - the plot and narration | 132 |
| Emily Brontë | 133 |
| Walter ALLEN: The originality of Wuthering Heights | 134 |
| Raymond WILLIAMS: The historical and social perspective in Wuthering Heights | 136 |
| Keith SAGAR: Imagery and narration in Wuthering Heights | 139 |
| Arnold KETTLE: The revolt of Catherine and Heathcliff | 142 |
| George Eliot | 144 |
| Ian MILNER: Character, society and history in the fiction of George Eliot | 145 |
| Isobel MURRAY: Determinism and moral responsibility in The Mill on the Floss | 148 |
| Arnold KETTLE: The fiction of George Eliot - a new development in 19th century realism / Middlemarch /... | 151 |
| Ian MILNER: Human aspiration and social circumstances in Middlemarch | 154 |

VIII

Thomas Hardy157

D.H.LAWRENCE: Thomas Hardy's characters and love158
 Arnold KETTLE: Tess of the D'Urbervilles as a social novel..160
 Ernest BAKER: Jude the Obscure - a new type of novel.....163
 John PATERSON: Nature and character in Thomas Hardy.....166

POSTSCRIPT172

Changes in the English novel from late Victorian times till today

Walter ALLEN: Stratification of English fiction at the end of the 19th century173

Raymond WILLIAMS: A parting of the ways176

David DAICHES: World War I - the value crisis and its impact on the novel.....183

Alan FRIEDMAN: The myth of openness in the modernist and postmodernist novel193

Virginia WOOLF: Modern Fiction197

David LODGE: Modernism versus the critical realism of the 30s and the post-war period.....201

David LODGE: Postmodernist fiction and metafiction207

A.S.BYATT: A modern critique of the fictive status of 19th century realism /John Fowles: The French Lieutenant's Woman/.....212

The authors of the essays214

Bibliography of sources219

Recommended general literature223