

CONTENT

Introduction

9

ZDENĚK KRÍŽ

1. The never ending international relations story: theories dealing with the causes of wars 13

1.1 Introduction 13

1.2 Biological and psychological theories about the causes of wars 16

1.3 Marxism and neo-Marxism 23

1.3.1 Key assumptions of the Marxist Social Theory 23

1.3.2 The causes of war in the political theory of Marxism 24

1.3.3 The neo-Marxist varieties 28

1.4 Liberal theories 31

1.4.1 General features 31

1.4.2 The impact of economic cooperation 32

1.4.3 The role of international institutions 35

1.4.4 The Democratic Peace Theory 40

1.5 Realism and neorealism 51

1.5.1 Realism 51

1.5.2 Neorealism 54

1.6 Conclusion 60

KATEŘINA FRIDRICHOVÁ

2. Humanitarian intervention 69

2.1 Introduction 69

2.2 Legalist approach 70

2.3 Sovereignty 72

2.4 Solidarists' approach 74

2.5 Responsibility to Protect	76
2.6 Humanitarian intervention criteria	79
2.7 Short history of humanitarian interventions	82
2.8 Conclusion	84

ZINAIDA SHEVCHUK

3. Towards a typology of armed conflict	87
3.1 Introduction	87
3.2 Typology of conflict by its actors	89
3.3 Conflict typology by process – violence intensity	90
3.4 Competing goals: typology of issues at stake in armed conflicts	94
3.4.1 Ethnic conflict	94
3.4.2 Conflict over political arrangements	98
3.4.3 Ideological confrontation and its consequences	100
3.4.4 Economic conflict	102
3.4.5 Territorial cross-border conflict	105
3.5 Conclusion	107

JANA URBANOVSKÁ

4. The role of international organizations in conflict resolution	115
4.1 Introduction	115
4.2 The United Nations	119
4.3 The North Atlantic Treaty Organization	126
4.4 The European Union	131
4.5 The Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe	137
4.6 Conclusion	141

5. Managing armed conflict and the use of arms embargoes	147
5.1 Introduction	147
5.2 Conflict management	147
5.3 Arms embargoes	149
5.4 Non economic sanctions	151
5.5 Comparative advantages of arms embargoes	154
5.6 Challenges to arms embargoes in conflict management	157
5.6.1 Time	157
5.6.2 Target	159
5.6.3 Enforcement and monitoring	162
5.6.4 Evasion	166
5.7 Conclusion	168
6. Conclusion	173
Authors	175
Summary	177
Index	178