

Contents

Preface	vii
Notes on contributors	ix
1 Introduction: gender and gender relations in German history	1
Lynn Abrams and Elizabeth Harvey
2 Gender norms and their enforcement in early modern Germany	39
Heide Wunder
3 The public body: policing abortion in early modern Germany	57
Ulinka Rublack
4 Religious dissent and the roots of German feminism	81
Dagmar Herzog
5 Companionship and conflict: the negotiation of marriage relations in the nineteenth century	101
Lynn Abrams
6 The sick warrior's sister: nursing during the First World War	121
Regina Schulte

CONTENTS

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 7 | Wise women, wise men and abortion in the Weimar Republic: gender, class and medicine
Cornelie Usborne | 143 |
| 8 | National Socialist policies towards female homosexuality
Claudia Schoppmann | 177 |
| 9 | Driving the message home: Nazi propaganda in the private sphere
Kate Lacey | 189 |
| 10 | Labours of consumption: gendered consumers in post-war East and West German reconstruction
Katherine Pence | 211 |
| | Bibliography | 239 |
| | Index | 257 |