

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	page x
Introduction	1
1 The creation of sacred time Religious reformation, history, and eschatology: Protestant historiography in England during the sixteenth century	12
2 The creation of sacred space I The geographies of the mind: the incorporation of America as a sacred place in ecclesiastical history	56
3 The creation of sacred space II The eschatology of the Protestant settlement of Virginia	94
4 The creation of sacred space III Time, history, and eschatology in the Puritan migration into the wilderness	120
5 The creation of sacred errand Exile and Kingdom: the redemptive significance of the Puritan Errand into the Wilderness	156
6 The creation of a sacred Christian society The gospel of reformation: the creation of holy Christian fellowships	207
7 The creation of a holy Christian commonwealth Theocracy in New England: the nature and meaning of the holy experiment in the wilderness	231
Index	253