

TABLE OF CONTENTS

RECORD's Brighton conference - a summary

Katalin Dévai – Eamon Cahill – Norbert Gallagher	7
---	---

THE APPROACH TO BENCHMARK R&D INSTITUTIONS IN THE RECORD PROJECT

The „Centre of Excellence“ concept: examples from the literature and practice of some countries

Balazs Borsi – Martin Kedro	17
--	----

Benchmarking in the context of centres of research and technology development

Philip Sowden	29
----------------------------	----

Benchmarking best practice in Research and Technology Institutes

Howard J. Rush	37
-----------------------------	----

A proposal for micro-level quantitative benchmarks in the accession countries

Gabor Papanek – Balazs Borsi	43
---	----

Benchmarking processes of CEEC's centres of RTD: a case study methodology

Theodoros Papaioannou	53
------------------------------------	----

Background paper:

Pilot case study: the Institute of Experimental Medicine

Ildiko Petruska – Marta Szabo	69
--	----

EXAMPLES OF EVALUATING R&D IN THE CANDIDATE COUNTRIES

Evaluation of basic research in the Czech Republic: the case of humanities and social sciences

Adolf Filacek	83
----------------------------	----

Evaluations of R&D institutions in Hungary

Balazs Borsi – Balazs Botos – Gabor Papanek	97
--	----

The innovation scoreboard in Malta

Joseph Micallef	105
------------------------------	-----

Centres of Excellence in Poland before 2002 and context of their establishment

Julita Jablecka	119
------------------------------	-----

Evaluation of research institutions in Poland by the State Committee

for Scientific Research
Krzysztof Jan Kurzydowski	127

Benchmarking innovation in Slovakia

Stefan Zajac	133
---------------------------	-----

Approach to establishing the technology networks in Slovenia

Hedvika Usenik – Peter Stanovnik	139
---	-----

Background papers:

Czech case studies in the R&D sector

Jiri Loudin	147
--------------------------	-----

Extract from the 'STAR' report: the Czech Republic

Adolf Filacek – Jiri Loudin	153
--	-----

EU policies on benchmarking and mapping of excellence

Josef Hochgerner	157
-------------------------------	-----

Science and technology indicators and innovation surveys in 'catching-up' economies: their relevance, results and policy issues

Slavo Radosevic	165
------------------------------	-----

POLICY OPTIONS FOR THE EUROPEAN RESEARCH AREA: THE CANDIDATES' PERSPECTIVE

Scientific and technological specialisation patterns of the Central European candidate countries
under the European Framework Programme for RTD

Klaus Schuch	185
---------------------------	-----

Relevant operational and policy developments following the Brighton workshop

Eamon Cahill – Norbert Gallagher	197
---	-----