

CONTENTS/СОДЕРЖАНИЕ

Введение (Memory – Nation – Minorities – Marginalisation – Identities I and II / Память – нация – меньшинства – маргинализация – идентичности I и II/) – SOUKUPOVÁ Blanka . . . . .	9
Introduction (Memory – Nation – Minorities – Marginalisation – Identity II) – NOSKOVÁ Helena – BEDNAŘÍK Petr . . . . .	11
1. Traditions in studying identity in Russian sociology and ethnology: major syntheses (The theory of nation and nationalism – ethnic and civil /national/ identity: accord and conflict, crisis of national identity, adaptation and integration of migrants, literature, landscape and identity)
Особенности гражданской и этнической идентичности в республиках Российской Федерации – Леокадия ДРОБИЖЕВА . . . . .	15
Этническая и гражданская идентичности молодежи в регионах России – Екатерина АРУТЮНОВА . . . . .	23
Кризис идентичности в молодежной среде республики Дагестан – Андрианна Анатольевна СКОРОБОГАТАЯ & Ахмет Аминович ЯРЛЫКАПОВ . . . . .	33
Стратегии, практики, потенциал адаптации и интеграции мигрантов – Владимир МУКОМЕЛЬ . . . . .	47
К определению понятий этнос, народ, нация и национальное государство – Аркадий Исаакович ЛИПКИН . . . . .	59
River as a memory in russian and czech prose and poetry – Polina GOLOVATINA-MORA & Varvara GOLOVATINA . . . . .	69
2. Traditions in studying identity in Czech ethnology and history: thorough micro-analyses (Czech memory and Czech forgetting: marginalised areas, sections of history and marginalisation of the inhabitants of Czech lands)
Identity, memory, marginality, educational system, and education in borderland regions The example of Králicko and Jesenicko regions – Helena NOSKOVÁ . . . . .	79
Jewish reflections upon Munich and the Second Republic – Blanka SOUKUPOVÁ . . . . .	93
Marginalization as a means of the artificial shaping of collective memory: a case study of “inconvenient” groups of soldiers of the Czechoslovak units-in-exile 1939–1945 – Zdenko MARŠÁLEK . . . . .	111
Jews, memory and history in Czechoslovakia during 1945–1989 – Petr BEDNAŘÍK . . . . .	119

3. Traditions in studying identity in Latvian philosophy: non-conformist thoughts and micro-analyses

(Components of national identity, the Latvian religious landscape in the past)

Self-surveillance and technologies of the self (experience of Latvia)

– Igors ŠUVAJEVS.....127

Вспоминая забытое: к вопросу о коллективной памяти латвийских староверов

– Надежда ПАЗУХИНА .....133

Religious identity: from the marginalization to the home experience

– Māra KIOPE.....143

Conclusion/Заключение

Memory – nation – minorities – marginalization – identity

as conceived by russian, czech and latvian science

on the discussion of great and small nations and marginalization

in the past and present– Blanka SOUKUPOVÁ.....155

References I .....161

Ссылки II .....169

Autoři (Authors/Авторы).....173