

Contents

Foreword	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Note to readers	xiii
Introduction	1
Supportive environments	2
A toolbox for change	2
More encyclopaedia than novel	3
Three new models	3
Using the handbook	4
<hr/>
Part 1. Strategies that work
<hr/>
Chapter 1 Creating favourable conditions for health	7
Chapter 2 Obstacles to achieving supportive environments	8
Chapter 3 Learning from experience	11
Policy development	11
Regulation	13
Reorienting organizations	14
Advocacy	16
Building alliances and creating awareness	17
Enabling	19
Mobilizing and empowering	20
Chapter 4 The health promotion strategy analysis model	22
Seven strategies for creating supportive environments for health	23
Policy development	23
Regulation	24

CONTENTS

	Reorienting organizations	24
	Advocacy	24
	Alliances/awareness	25
	Enabling	25
	Mobilizing/empowering	25
	Components of implementation in the HELPSAM model	26
	Approaches	26
	Actors	26
	Target groups	27
	Levels/arena	27
	Procedures and tools	27
	Expected outcomes	27
<hr/>
Part 2. Settings, voices and experiences
<hr/>
Chapter 5	The Sundsvall pyramid of supportive environments	31
Chapter 6	Education	33
	Issues and problems	33
	Education and a healthy society	34
	Education and health	35
	Education and social change	35
	Building a healthy future	36
	Opportunities for learning	36
	Learning in the formal educational system	37
	Learning in the community	37
	Learning in the family	41
	Learning in the workplace	42
	Learning through the media	43
	Tapping education's potential to create a healthy society	44
	Enhancing cooperation between formal and informal education	44
	Increasing access to education	46
	Supporting continuing education	50
	Creating healthy education systems	51
	Reorienting professional training	57
	Creating a supportive political environment	60
	Conclusions	61
Chapter 7	Food and nutrition	63
	Issues and problems	63
	Food security	64

	Food safety	64
	Healthy eating	64
	Activities and solutions	65
	Food policy and intersectoral collaboration	65
	Food shortage — coping with too little	69
	Supporting healthy food choices	72
	Vulnerable groups in nutrition	77
	Women's role in food and nutrition matters	81
	Approaches to better food safety	83
	Education for better nutrition	85
	Conclusions	86
Chapter 8	Home and neighbourhood	88
	Issues and problems	88
	Activities and solutions	89
	People's initiatives	90
	Healthy cities	94
	Improving housing facilities	98
	The immediate surroundings	102
	Services in the community	104
	Conclusions	107
	Lack of access to land and housing	107
	An unhealthy environment	107
	Housing hygiene	108
Chapter 9	Work	109
	Issues and problems	109
	Issues for action in work and health	111
	Activities and solutions	112
	Global issues	113
	Social role of work	115
	Healthy workplaces	117
	Work can make you healthy	124
	Empowerment issues and organizational change	126
	Conclusions	135
Chapter 10	Transport	137
	Issues and problems	137
	Activities and solutions	139
	Policy development	139
	Meeting transport needs	140
	Road safety	141
	Congestion, pollution and loss of amenities and land	146
	Conclusions	149

CONTENTS

Chapter 11 Social support and care	151
Issues and problems	151
Activities and solutions	153
Community initiatives	153
Vulnerable groups	155
Women and self-help groups	159
Empowering	162
Political commitment, advocacy, alliances	163
Conclusions	165
<hr/>
Part 3. Steps for action
<hr/>
Chapter 12 From analysis to action	169
Obstacles to be overcome	169
We can do it!	170
The supportive environments action model	171
Involving men and women	175
Chapter 13 Make your own handbook	176
Share your experiences	177
Suggested further reading	183
Annex 1 List of stories	185
Annex 2 Key concepts in community action for health	190
Annex 3 The Sundsvall statement on supportive environments for health	194
Annex 4 How to establish a national or local database	200