

Table of contents

Background	4
Understanding stigma and discrimination: forms and contexts	7
Stigma, discrimination and human rights: an intimate connection	11
Working for success	13
Case studies	14
Stigma-reduction approaches	17
Approach: Improving the quality of life for people living with HIV through integrated care	17
AIDS Integrated Programme, Catholic Diocese of Ndola, Zambia	17
Joint Ministry of Health/NGO home-care programme for people with HIV/AIDS in Cambodia	21
Approach: Mobilizing religious leaders to foster respect and compassion for people living with HIV and AIDS, and to participate in prevention activities	23
Sangha Metta project, Thailand	23
Catholic AIDS Action, Namibia	27
Approach: Providing comprehensive community-based AIDS treatment, including access to antiretroviral therapy	29
HIV Equity Initiative, Haiti	29
Approach: Empowering people living with HIV to take the lead in diverse support and advocacy activities	33
Involvement of people living with HIV in HIV-prevention activities, Belarus.	33
Approach: Counselling and support to HIV-affected families, including children, through 'succession planning'	35
Succession planning, Uganda	35
Approach: Addressing broader inequalities through participatory education	39
Centre for the Study of AIDS (CSA) at the University of Pretoria, South Africa	39

Approach: Mobilizing community leaders to encourage greater openness around sexuality- and HIV-related issues within communities by building on positive social norms	42
Zambia Integrated Health Programme (ZIHP), Zambia	42
Approach: Raising awareness through the media	45
Soul City, South Africa	45
Antidiscrimination measures	48
Approach: Mobilizing the private sector to implement non-discriminatory AIDS policies and promote understanding about AIDS	48
Thailand Business Coalition on AIDS (TBCA), Thailand	48
Approach: Improving employee quality of life through access to integrated care and the implementation of non-discriminatory policies	51
Volkswagen (VW) Brazil	51
Approach: Improving clinical care for patients living with HIV through participatory activities with health-care managers and providers	53
Improving the hospital environment for HIV-positive clients in India	53
Human rights and legal approaches	57
Approach: Promoting the human rights of people living with HIV and providing redress for violations of their human rights	57
Acción Ciudadana Contra el Sida: Citizens' Action against AIDS (ACCSI), Venezuela	57
AIDS Law Unit, Legal Assistance Centre, Namibia	61
HIV/AIDS Unit, Lawyers' Collective, India	63
Approach: Advocating increased access to HIV treatment	65
Treatment Action Campaign (TAC), South Africa	65
Discussion	68
Conclusions	75