

Contents

Acronyms	8
Introduction: Read this first!	9
1. What is this handbook?	9
2. Why was this handbook developed?	9
3. How was this handbook developed?	10
4. Who is this handbook for?	10
5. How can this handbook be used?	10
6. What is in the chapters of this handbook?	12
7. What materials are needed to use this handbook?	12
8. Who developed this handbook?	13
9. Further sources of information	14
Example of workshop schedule	15
Chapter 1: First questions to ask	17
1.1. Care, support and treatment	17
A. Care and support
B. Treatment
1.2. Linking treatment and prevention	22
1.3. Access to treatment	24
A. Availability of treatment
B. Accessibility of treatment
Information Sheet 1: Barriers to access to treatment	30
Information Sheet 2: Factors affecting access to treatment	33
1.4. Further sources of information	35

Chapter 2: Foundations of treatment	36
2.1. The basic elements of treatment work	36
A. Supportive relationships for treatment work
B. Knowledge, skills and attitudes for treatment work
C. An ethical approach to treatment work
D. Information for treatment work
2.2. How different treatments vary	45
2.3. Working with others to improve access to treatment	48
A. Partnerships to improve access to treatment
B. Advocacy to improve access to treatment
Treatment Information Sheet	52
Treatment Assessment Sheet	53
2.4. Further sources of information	54
Chapter 3: Putting treatment into practice	55
3.1. Resources for HIV/AIDS-related treatment work	55
3.2. Drugs for HIV/AIDS-related treatment	60
A. Managing HIV/AIDS-related drugs
B. The essential medicines concept
C. Guidelines for treatment
D. Choosing the right drugs
E. Drug names
F. Using drugs effectively
G. Fact sheet – antiretrovirals
3.3. Sourcing and looking after good-quality drugs	73
A. Drug quality
B. Sources of drugs
C. Storing drugs
D. Keeping records and ordering drugs
3.4. Providing drugs to people living with HIV/AIDS	85
A. Paying for HIV/AIDS-related treatment
B. Drug information
C. Dispensing drugs
D. Managing transport for HIV/AIDS-related treatment
3.5. Training and management for treatment work	91
3.6. Further sources of information	93

Chapter 4: Assessing needs and resources, and deciding what to do	95
4.1. The assessment process	95
4.2. Assessment frameworks	97
A. Assessing needs and resources – people living with HIV/AIDS and the community
B. Assessing needs and resources – the local environment
C. Assessing needs and resources – your NGO/CBO/PLWHA group
4.3. Deciding what to do	108
A. Analysing your findings
B. Reaching a decision
C. Communicating your decision
Information Sheet 3: Thinking creatively about what your group can do – treatment in context	112
4.4. Further sources of information	113
Chapter 5: Learning from, and improving, HIV/AIDS-related treatment work	114
5.1. Monitoring and evaluating HIV/AIDS-related treatment work	114
A. Keeping records of your work
B. Monitoring your work
C. Evaluating your work
5.2. Changing and improving HIV/AIDS-related treatment work	119
A. Making the most of new resources and linkages
B. Coping with changes
C. Sharing your experiences with others
D. Scaling up, scaling down or staying the same
5.3. Further sources of information	124
Organizations that contributed to the development of this handbook	126

Acknowledgements

We wish to thank all those who have so generously given their time, energy and guidance during the development of this handbook (please see page 126). A special thanks to Calle Almedal and Salvator Niyonzima from UNAIDS, to the Alliance, and to the many people with HIV/AIDS who shared their experience and supported the development of this resource. We couldn't have done it without you!