

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	vii
Introduction	1
One The Dream of the Genetic Improvement of Mankind— The Formation of the International Eugenics Movement	11
Two The First World War and Its Effect on International Eugenics	29
Three Racism, Internationalism, and Eugenics	47
Four The Crisis of Orthodox Eugenics and the Rise of Human Genetics and Population Science	71
Five National Socialist Germany and the National Eugenics Movement	91
Six The Second World War and the Mass Murder of the Sick and Handicapped	121
Seven On “Good” and “Bad” Eugenics: Refocusing on Human Genetic Counseling and the Struggle against “Overpopulation”	133
Eight The Renaissance of Racist Eugenics	157
Nine The Dissolution of the Eugenics Movement: Will There Be Eugenics without Eugenicists?	181
Afterword	187
Notes	191
Sources and Bibliography	237
Index of Persons	279
Organizations, Conferences, Journals and Newspapers	285