An n after a page number refers to discussion of a specific entry in a note. Subdivisions of historical subjects are in general listed in chronological order, others in alphabetical order. The names of royalties, except for some specific instances, are listed in anglicized form. Otherwise, the spelling of names either in anglicized form or in one of the vernacular languages of the Habsburg empire is determined in each individual case by the assumed familiarity of the reader with the listing used.
