

European Human Rights Law Review

Issue 5 2015

Table of Contents

Editorial

A Note from the Editor
Jonathan Cooper

443

Opinion

The History of Judicial Independence in England and Wales
Sir Henry Brooke CMG

446

Bulletin

460

Bulletin: Counter-Terrorism and Human Rights

465

Articles

The Legality of a Combination of Disciplinary and Criminal Penalties Applied to Civil Servants in the European Legal Sphere
Professor Dr Ingrid Opdebeek and Dr Stéphanie De Somer

474

A Bizarre Anomaly? Rights of Political Participation and the Scottish Independence Referendum: Moohan v Lord Advocate
Howard Davis

488

Understanding “Quelling a Riot or Insurrection” under Article 2 of the ECHR
Hannah Russell

495

Access to Abortion Services in the Council of Europe: A Critical Analysis of Women’s Reproductive Rights
Nedim Malovic

505

Case Analysis

Powers to Search, Question and Detain under Schedule 7 to the Terrorism Act 2000: Beghal v Director of Public Prosecutions
Howard Wong and Mark Law

512

Case and Comment

Identoba v Georgia

520

Magee v United Kingdom

524

Doğan Altun v Turkey	527
Lambert v France	530
Chiragov v Armenia	534
Delfi AS v Estonia	538
Abdulla Ali v United Kingdom	543
Nicklinson and Lamb v United Kingdom	546
Book Review	552