

Table of Contents

Preface to the Third Edition	xxxvii
Preface to the First Edition	xxxix
Acknowledgements	xliii
User's Guide	xlvii
List of Abbreviations	li
PART ONE
International Business Negotiations	1
1ST SCENARIO
International Business Contracts	3
Question 1
Contract Conclusion in International Business	4
A. One Document vs Exchange of Fax/Email Messages	4
B. The Search for Offer and Acceptance	4
1. Non-binding Inquiry or Binding Offer?	4
2. Pro Forma Invoices/Invitation to Offer	4
3. Nature of Binding Offers	5
C. Inclusion of Standard Forms and Penalty Clause	5
1. The Standard Forms Problem	6
2. The Penalty Clause	6
3. The Connection between Standard Forms and Penalty Clause	7

Table of Contents

---

Question 2
Confirmations of Order	8
A. Significance of Seller's 'Confirmation of Order'	8
1. Confirmation of Order as Binding Offer	8
2. Confirmation of Order as Writing in Confirmation	8
B. Significance for the ALT/NedTrans Contract	8
Question 3
Efficiency and Speed in International Contract Drafting	9
A. Reference to Pre-formulated Texts	9
1. Reference to Standard Terms	9
2. Reference to INCOTERMS	10
B. Increased Risks through Multiple Contract Documents	11
Question 4
The Avoidance of Legal Advice at the Drafting Stage	12
A. Communication Barriers between Lawyers and Businessmen	12
B. Businessmen's Perception of Lawyers as 'Deal Breakers'	12
C. Lawyers Get Involved When It Is Too Late	14
2ND SCENARIO
The Dispute	15
Question 1
The Dispute between NedTrans and ALT	16
A. 'Conflicts' and 'Disputes'	16
B. The Meaning of 'Conflict'	17
1. Significance of Conflict Research	17
2. The Nature of Social Conflicts	17
C. The Meaning of 'Dispute'	18
1. General Disputes	18
2. International Business Disputes	19
3. Legal Disputes	20
Question 2
From Conflict to Dispute	21
A. The Escalation of Conflicts	21
1. Escalation Stages: 'Rivalry' - 'Fight' - 'War'	21
2. Escalation as Ground for Increased Complexity of Disputes	22
B. Reasons for Escalation	22
1. Zero-Sum Thinking	22
2. 'Selective Perception', 'Tunnel Vision', 'Judgmental Overconfidence'	23
3. The Parties' Distorted View of Reality ('Attributive Distortion')	23

Question 3
Legal and Non-legal Reasons for Business Disputes	25
A. Reasons for the Business Dispute between NedTrans and ALT	25
B. Other Reasons for Business Disputes: The Non-legal Side	25
1. The Human Factor ('LABS Element')	26
2. The Intercultural Factor	28
3. The Language Factor	32
Question 4
Choice of Dispute Resolution Process	34
A. Important Distinctions	34
B. Involvement of Third Party Interveners	35
1. The Basic Choice	35
2. The Powers of the Neutral Third Party	35
3. Control over the Process	36
C. Consensual Character of the Process	37
D. Adversarial vs Conciliatory Processes ('Rights' vs 'Interests')	38
E. The Parties' Right to Walk Away	39
F. Confidentiality ('Public Adjudication' or 'Private Dispute Resolution')	39
G. Enforceability	40
Question 5
Making the Right Choices in Practice	41
A. 'Fitting the Forum to the Fuss'	41
B. Criteria for Choices	42
Question 6
Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)	44
A. What is ADR?	44
1. Private Dispute Resolution	44
2. Does ADR Include Arbitration: The US and the European Views	45
3. ADR as a Legal Service Industry	46
B. The ADR Toolbox	46
1. The Range of Options	46
2. Escalation Clauses ('Multi-Tier' Dispute Resolution)	47
3. Conflict Manager; 'Conflict Clearance Clause'	49
4. Dispute Avoidance	50
Question 7
Renegotiation Clauses	51
A. The Duties of the Parties	51
B. A Right to Negotiate or a Right to Agree?	53
C. Renegotiation without Agreement?	54

Table of Contents

---

3RD SCENARIO

Developing Strategies 57

Question 1

The Venue 58

A. Controlling the Negotiation Venue 58

B. Negotiating in One's Own Office 58

Question 2

Timing Issues 59

A. Controlling the Time Factor 59

B. The Dangers of Revealing Time Constraints 60

Question 3

Agenda 60

A. Controlling the Agenda 60

B. Relationship between Agenda and Time 61

Question 4

Preparing for Negotiations 61

A. Preparatory Information Gathering 61

B. A Party's Negotiation Position 62

1. The 'BATNA' 62

2. The 'Walk-away Price' 64

3. The 'Zone of Possible Agreement' 64

4. The 'Negotiator's Dilemma' 65

Question 5

Bargaining Power 67

A. The Nature of 'Bargaining Power' 67

B. The Distribution of Bargaining Power in our Case 68

1. NedTrans' Mr Bakker 68

2. ALT's Mr Stutz 69

Question 6

Negotiations over the Phone 70

A. Natural Limits of Telephone Conferences 70

B. The Need to Meet 'Face-to-Face' 70

4TH SCENARIO

The Negotiations in The Hague: Morning Session 73

Question 1

A Basic Understanding of Negotiations 74

A. The Meaning of 'Negotiations': A Qualified Communication Process 74

B.	The Significance of the 'Environment'	76
C.	Three Essential Issues: Strategy, Psychology, Skills	77
Question 2
	Negotiation Theory	78
A.	'Distributive' vs 'Integrative' Negotiations	78
	1. Distributive ('Positional' or 'Competitive') Bargaining	78
	2. Integrative Bargaining	82
	3. 'Principled Negotiations'	83
B.	The Need for a Flexible Approach	84
Question 3
	The Lawyer's Pathological Perspective	85
A.	Lawyers as Negotiators?	85
B.	The Lawyer's Court Room Perspective	85
Question 4
	The Managers' Negotiation Tactics	86
A.	Mr Bakker's Tactics	86
B.	Mr Stutz' Reactions	88
	1. Possible Options	88
	2. 'Breakthrough' Negotiations Strategy	89
Question 5
	Lawyers' Participation in Negotiations	91
A.	The Lawyers' Role in Negotiations	91
B.	Lawyers as Agents	92
5TH SCENARIO
	The Negotiations in The Hague: Afternoon Session	93
Question 1
	From Positional Thinking to Arab Bazaar	94
A.	Captivated in Positional Thinking	94
B.	The 'Arab Bazaar'	94
	1. Nature of the 'Negotiation Dance'	94
	2. Who Makes the First Offer?	95
	3. The Unreasonably High First Offer	95
	4. Splitting It Down the Middle	96
	5. The Pattern of Concessions	97
Question 2
	'Mutt and Jeff' Negotiation Tactics	98

Table of Contents

---

Question 3
Typical Phases of a Negotiation	99
Question 4
Different Negotiation Perspectives	101
A. Deal-Making Negotiation (DMN) and Dispute Settlement Negotiations (DSN)	101
B. Differences between DMN and DSN	101
Question 5
Reasons for Failure of Negotiations	103
A. The Escalation of the Dispute	103
B. Reasons for Escalation	103
Question 6
Costs of Failed Negotiations	104
A. The Economic Consequences of the Break-Up	104
B. Ways to Avoid the Break-Up	105
PART TWO
International Business Mediation	107
6TH SCENARIO
The Proposal to Mediate ('Getting to the Table')	109
Question 1
Alternative Dispute Resolution and Proactive Dispute Management	111
A. Proactive Dispute Management	111
1. Dispute Resolution Planning as Part of Corporate Management	111
2. Dispute Management and Budget Constraints of Legal Departments	113
3. Dispute Management Contracts and Internal Review Boards	115
B. Dispute Management and the Changing Role of the In-House Lawyer	115
Question 2
Mr Martens' Proposal: A 'High-Level, Top Executive Mediation'	117
A. Reasons for Suggesting the Mediation	117
B. Definition and History of Mediation	118
1. A Definition	118
2. A Brief Historical Note on Mediation	118
C. Characteristics of the Mediation Process	119
1. Voluntary and Consensual Process	119
2. Mediator as 'Facilitator' or 'Manager' of Negotiations	120
3. Parties Retain Decision-Making Power	121

4.	The Parties' Self-Responsibility	122
5.	The Neutral Third Party's Impact on the Relationship between the Parties	122
6.	Flexibility of the Mediator's Role	124
Question 3
Reasons for a 'High-Level, Top Executive' Mediation		124
A.	Overcoming the Pride-Barrier	124
B.	Positive Signal for the Other Side	125
C.	Decision-Making Authority of CEOs	126
D.	Managers' Prior Involvement in Dispute as Barrier to Agreement	127
E.	CEOs Not Involved in Prior Negotiations	127
Question 4
The Agreement to Mediate		128
A.	Nature of the Agreement to Mediate	128
B.	Effect of the Agreement to Mediate	128
1.	Dismissal of Court Action as Currently Inadmissible	128
2.	Parties Not Bound Indefinitely	131
Question 5
The Role of Lawyers in the Mediation Process		133
A.	Function of Lawyers in a Mediation	133
B.	Lawyers as Guarantors of the Fairness of the Mediation Process	133
Question 6
Selecting a Mediator		135
A.	The Qualifications Required of a Mediator	135
1.	Knowledge of the Law	135
2.	Soft Skills and Human Qualities	136
3.	Personal Style and Understanding of the Mediation Process	138
B.	One or More Mediators?	138
Question 7
The Role of the Institution		138
A.	Institutional vs 'Ad Hoc' Mediation	138
B.	Different Degree of Involvement of Mediation Institutions	140
Question 8
The Mediator in the Mediation Process		140
A.	Neutrality of Mediators	140
B.	Neutrality, Confidentiality and Fairness of the Process	141

Table of Contents

---

Question 9
First Contact with the Mediator	142
A. Dr Raiser's First Letter to the Parties	142
B. Briefing the Mediator	143
Question 10
Mediation Venue	145
A. Legal Significance of Choice of Venue	145
B. Mediation Rules	146
C. Mediation Laws	146
Question 11
Mediation Environment	148
A. Significance of 'Contextual Factors'	148
B. Seating of Parties and Their Lawyers	148
C. Visualization Equipment	149
Question 12
Duration of a Mediation	149
7TH SCENARIO
The Mediation – Phase 1: The Mediator's Opening Statement and Conclusion of the Negotiation Agreement	151
Question 1
Introductory Statement by the Mediator	152
A. 'Demystifying' the Process	152
B. Setting the Tone for the Negotiations	153
C. Establishing Rapport	153
D. Getting the Lawyers Involved in the Mediation Process	155
E. Seeking the Parties' Commitment to the Mediation Process	155
Question 2
Stages of the Mediation Process	156
A. The Five Stages of a Mediation	156
B. Purpose and Significance of the Stages	159
C. Difference between Negotiation and Mediation	159
Question 3
The Negotiation Agreement	159
A. The General Purpose of the Negotiation Agreement	159
B. Specific Purposes of the Negotiation Agreement	160
1. Making Use of the Mediation Concept	160
2. Reference Point for the Parties	161
3. Commitment Contract	161

Question 4
Content of Negotiation Agreement	162
A. Negotiation Agreement Distinguished from Mediation Agreement	162
B. Two Contracts in One Document	164
C. Conclusion of the Negotiation Agreement	165
Question 5
Confidentiality in Mediation	165
A. Confidentiality and the Legitimacy of Mediation	165
B. Scope of Confidentiality	165
C. Purpose of Confidentiality: Promoting Candour	166
Question 6
The Principle of 'Self-Determination'	168
A. The Essential Difference between Mediation and Arbitration	168
B. Self-Determination and Party-Satisfaction	169
8TH SCENARIO
The Mediation – Phase 2: The Parties' Opening Statements	171
Question 1
The Parties' Opening Statements	172
A. Purpose of the Parties' Opening Statements	172
B. Reason for Involvement of Lawyers	173
C. The Mediator's Role	173
Question 2
Resolving Procedural 'Mini-Disputes'	174
Question 3
The Mediator's Duties	175
A. The Mediator's Task to Control and Structure the Parties' Communication	175
B. Establishing a Cooperative Communication Culture	175
C. Communication and the Parties' View of the Substance of the Dispute	176
9TH SCENARIO
The Mediation – Phase 2: Identifying Issues and Interests	177
Question 1
The Purpose of 'Issue Spotting'	178
A. From Contention to Cooperation	178
B. Ensuring Maximum Flow of Information	178

Table of Contents

---

Question 2
Emotions in Mediation	179
A. Emotions and Fall-Back into Positional Thinking	179
B. The Mediator's Task to Deal with the Parties' Emotions	180
1. Diagnosing, Regulating and Managing Emotions	180
2. Additional Intervention Strategies	181
Question 3
The 'Ideal World Perspective'	182
A. Moving Parties from Positional to Interest-Based Bargaining Techniques	182
B. Risks and Rewards of this Approach	183
Question 4
Reframing and Visualization	183
A. Reframing	184
B. Visualization	185
C. Re-Establishing Trust and Confidence between the Parties	185
10TH SCENARIO
The Mediation – Phase 3: Fixing the Agenda and Gathering Information	187
Question 1
Fixing the Agenda: Ordering Issues and Interests	188
A. Possible Ways to Structure the Agenda	188
B. 'Easier Items First'	189
Question 2
The 'Package Deal'	190
A. Drawbacks of Creating Negotiation Packages	190
B. Applauding the Parties for Taking a Future-Oriented Perspective	190
Question 3
Making the Parties Change Their Perspective of the Dispute	191
A. Looking Ahead Instead of Dealing with the Past	191
B. 'Looping Back' into Positional Thinking	192
Question 4
Legal Evaluation by the Mediator	193
A. Difference between Adjudication and Mediation	193
B. Legal Evaluation by the Mediator	193

Question 5
Converting Negative Tension into Positive Momentum	194
A. Activating Energies and Dynamics instead of Unproductive Exchange of Arguments	194
B. The Mediator as the 'Devil's Advocate'	195
C. Shifting from Positional to Interest-Based Bargaining	196
Question 6
Significance of Legal Issues in Mediation	198
A. The 'Shadow of the Law' in Mediation	198
B. The Role of Law in Adjudication	198
C. The Role of Law in Mediation	200
Question 7
The Mediator's Involvement in the Legal Assessment of the Dispute	203
A. Dr Raiser's Decision to Discuss the Legal Side of the Dispute	203
B. Decision-Tree Analysis	204
1. The Functioning of Decision-Tree Analysis	204
2. Decision Tree for Damage Claim and Penalty Payment	206
a. NedTrans' Damage Claim	206
aa. Legal Issues	206
bb. Decision Tree	208
b. NedTrans' Claim for a Penalty Payment	209
aa. Legal Issues	209
bb. Decision Tree	209
c. Penalty in Addition to or instead of Damages	210
aa. Legal Issues	210
bb. Decision Tree	210
C. Advantages of Decision-Tree Analysis	211
D. Disadvantages of Decision-Tree Analysis	211
Question 8
Making the Parties Step into the Shoes of the Other Side	213
A. Making the Parties Change Their Perspective of the Dispute	213
B. Dr Raiser's Strategic Approach	214
Question 9
The Turning Point	214
A. Gaining a Better Understanding for the Other Side	214
B. No Party Can Be Sure to 'Win' in Arbitration	215
Question 10
Cultural Approach in Mediation	215
A. Establishing a Positive Social Climate between the Parties	215
B. Significance of Social Events	216

Table of Contents

---

11TH SCENARIO

The Mediation – Phase 4: Generating Options for Settlement of the AX-100 Special Dispute ('Group I' Issues) and Bargaining	217
Question 1
Changing the Parties' Relationship	218
A. Achieving Psychological Closure through Social Activities	218
B. Reconciliation between the Parties	219
Question 2
A New Vision for the Parties' Business Relationship	220
A. Achieving Reconciliation between the Parties	220
B. Structuring the Negotiations in a Deductive Manner	220
Question 3
The Mediator's Role in the Option-Generating Phase	222
A. The Mediator as 'Catalyst of Creativity'	222
B. Avoidance of 'Loop Backs'	222
Question 4
Multi-Dimensional instead of Conflictual Approach	223
A. Moving from 'Win/Lose' to 'Win/Win' Thinking	223
B. 'Enlarging the Cake'	223
Question 5
Logrolling	224
A. The Use of Logrolling in Mediation	224
B. The Effect of Logrolling	225
Question 6
Mediation Styles and the Mediator's Right to Make Proposals	226
A. The Mediator's 'Role'	226
1. The Different Mediation 'Styles'	227
a. 'Facilitative' Mediation Style	228
b. 'Evaluative' Mediation Style	228
c. 'Transformative' Mediation Style	229
2. Dr Raiser's Role in the Mediation	230
B. Dr Raiser's Proposal	231
1. Building a 'Golden Bridge' for the Parties	231
2. Strategy	234
3. Timing	234

---

Question 7
Unusual Mediation Techniques	235
A. Envelope Procedure	235
B. Games of Chance	236
Question 8
Understanding Settlement as a Business Opportunity	237
A. Zone of Possible Agreement	237
B. Strategic Considerations of Businesspersons	237
Question 9
Mediator Responsibility vs Party Self-Determination	238
A. The Mediator's Responsibility for the Outcome of the Mediation	238
B. Acceptance of Risk by the Parties	238
Question 10
Changing the Parties' Communication Style	239
A. Communication in Mediation	239
B. Change of Communication Channels	239
Question 11
Deal Making vs Settlement Negotiations	241
A. Differences between Negotiation and Mediation	241
B. Win/Win vs Win/Lose	242
12TH SCENARIO
The Mediation – Phase 4: Restructuring the Future Business Relationship between NedTrans and ALT ('Group II' Issues)	243
Question 1
Business Secrets in Mediation	244
A. The Parties' Reluctance to Reveal Business Secrets	244
B. The Mediator's Need for Information	244
Question 2
Holding Caucus	245
A. Reasons for Caucus Sessions	245
B. Three Important Aspects of Caucusing	246
1. Timing and 'Golden Rules'	246
2. Transparency	247
3. Confidentiality	248
C. 'Shuttle' Mediation	248

Table of Contents

---

Question 3
Brainstorming	249
A. The Purpose of Brainstorming Sessions	249
B. The Two Phases of Brainstorming	250
C. The Mediator's Role in Brainstorming Sessions	250
Question 4
The Mediator's Supervisory Role	251
A. 'SMART' Settlement Agreements	251
B. The Mediator's Role	252
13TH SCENARIO
The Mediation – Phase 4: Mr Jaeggi's Limits of Authority	253
Question 1
Limits of Authority	253
A. Fabricated Limits of Authority	254
B. Real Limits of Authority	254
C. The Mediator's Options	255
Question 2
Settlement Agreement vs Business Memorandum	256
A. The Parties' Dilemma	256
B. The Parties' Options	256
1. Informal Business Memorandum	256
2. Final and Binding Settlement Agreement	257
C. Binding and Non-binding at the Same Time?	258
Question 3
Limits of Authority and Package Deal Concept	258
A. Weakness of Package-Deal Concept	258
B. The Parties' Transformative Approach	259
14TH SCENARIO
The Mediation – Phase 5: Signing of the Settlement Agreement and Termination of the Mediation	261
Question 1
Importance of Drafting and Signing of Settlement Agreement	261
A. Psychological Significance of Settlement Agreement	261
B. Identification of Parties with Their Settlement Terms	262
Question 2
Psychologies of Signing Ceremony and Formal Conflict Termination	263
A. Significance of Symbolic Conflict Termination Activities	263

B.	Parties' Perception of Settlement Agreement as 'Their Deal'	263
15TH SCENARIO
	Revocation of the Settlement Agreement ('From Interests to Positions')	265
Question 1
	Significance of Failure of Settlement	266
A.	Escaping the 'Zero-Sum Paradigm'	266
B.	The Parties' Strategic Mistake	266
C.	Disputes Not Apt for Mediation	267
D.	Mediation or Arbitration: A Matter of Principle or a Matter of Choice?	268
Question 2
	Failed Mediation as Learning Experience	269
A.	Benefits of Unsuccessful Mediation Sessions	269
B.	Failed Mediation as Learning Experience for Lawyers	269
Question 3
	The Parties' Options after a Failed Mediation	269
A.	Arbitration	269
B.	A New Mediation?	271
Question 4
	The Threat to Initiate Arbitration Proceedings	272
Question 5
	Arbitration and Continuation of Business Relationship	273
PART THREE
	International Commercial Arbitration	275
16TH SCENARIO
	The Commencement of the Arbitration	277
Question 1
	Conflicting Arbitration Clauses	279
A.	Negligent Drafting of Arbitration Clauses	279
B.	The Price for Negligent Drafting	280
Question 2
	The Nature and History of Arbitration	281
A.	What Is (International) Arbitration?	281
B.	A Brief Historical Note on Arbitration	283
C.	Why Parties Opt for Arbitration	284
D.	The Hybrid Nature of Arbitration: Contractual and Procedural	285

Table of Contents

---

1.	The Contractual Nature of Arbitration	285
a.	The Requirement of an Arbitration Agreement	285
b.	The Requirement of a 'Dispute' ('Rights' vs 'Interest' Arbitration)	287
aa.	The 'Dispute-Oriented' Definition of Arbitration	287
bb.	The Progressive View (From 'Rights' to 'Interest' Arbitration)	288
c.	The Primacy of Party Autonomy	290
2.	The Judicial Nature of Arbitration	291
a.	Mandatory Safeguards for Procedural Due Process	291
b.	The Effects of an Arbitral Award	292
c.	The Judicialization of International Arbitration	292
Question 3
	Use, Benefits and Dangers of Best Practices	298
A.	Use of Best Practices	298
B.	Benefits of Best Practices	300
C.	Dangers of Best Practices	301
Question 4
	'Ad Hoc' versus 'Institutional' Arbitration	302
A.	Agreement on Institutional Arbitration	302
B.	DIS Arbitration	304
C.	'Fast-Track' Arbitration Rules	305
Question 5
	Laws, Rules, and Procedural Discretion	308
A.	Arbitration Law and Arbitration Rules	308
B.	The Hierarchy of Rules	308
C.	The 'Proactive' Approach to the Conduct of Arbitration	310
Question 6
	Effects of a Valid Arbitration Agreement	312
A.	Positive Effects	312
B.	Negative Effects	312
1.	The Negative Obligation Not to Litigate Disputes before Domestic Courts	312
2.	Anti-suit Injunctions	313
C.	Other Effects of the Arbitration Agreement	316
Question 7
	Confidentiality in Arbitration	317
A.	The Notion of Confidentiality in Arbitration: Internal and External	317
B.	Confidentiality as Implied Term of the Arbitration Agreement	318
C.	The Public Interest and Other Exceptions	319

D.	Publication of Awards	323
E.	Need for and Limits to Express Confidentiality Agreements	324
Question 8
Arbitrability		325
A.	Subject-Matter and Contractual Arbitrability	325
B.	Applicable Law	325
	1. Possible Solutions	325
	2. Substantive Rules of Private International Law	326
C.	'Claims Involving an Economic Interest'	326
	1. All Claims Measurable in Monetary Terms	326
	2. Worldwide Trend in Favour of Arbitrability	327
	3. Arbitrator's Duty to Decline Jurisdiction in Case of Non-arbitrable Subject Matter	328
D.	Subjective Arbitrability: The Parties' Capacity to Arbitrate	328
E.	The Law Applicable to a Party's Representation	331
Question 9
The Place of Arbitration		332
A.	The Theoretical Perspective	332
	1. The Seat as the 'Legal Domicile' of the Arbitration	332
	a. The Territorial Theory	332
	b. The Mandatory Character of the Territorial Theory	333
	2. The 'Nationality' of the Award	336
	3. Transnationalization and Territoriality	337
B.	The Practical Perspective	337
	1. Seat of Arbitration and Place of Hearings and of Taking of Evidence	338
	2. Choice of Seat by Parties or Arbitral Tribunal	339
Question 10
The Party-Appointed Arbitrator		340
A.	Sole Arbitrator or Three-Member Tribunal?	340
B.	Importance of Decision to Nominate: Transfer of the Parties' Control	340
C.	Qualifications and Qualities Required	342
	1. General Qualifications	342
	2. Attitude towards Selection of Chairman	342
	3. Familiarity with Procedural Rules	343
	4. Favourable Disposition to the Party's Case	344
	a. Connection between Merits of Case and Selection Process	344
	b. Party-Appointed Arbitrator Not Representative of 'his' Party	345
	c. The Arbitrator's Duty to Disclose	346
	d. Position of Party-Appointed Arbitrator within the Tribunal	347
	5. Summary of Required Qualifications	348

Table of Contents

---

Question 11
Selecting a Candidate for Party-Appointed Arbitrator	349
A. Early Nomination of Claimant's Arbitrator	349
B. Gathering Information about Suitable Candidates	349
Question 12
Request for Arbitration/Statement of Claim	350
A. Difference between 'Request for Arbitration' and 'Statement of Claim'	350
B. Tactical Considerations	351
Question 13
Request for Arbitration and Statutory Limitation Periods	352
A. Interruption of Limitation Period through Filing of Statement of Claim	352
B. Requirements under German Law	353
Question 14
Written Advocacy in International Arbitration	354
A. Structure of Legal Briefs	354
B. Exposition of Law and Facts	355
Question 15
Filing of Statement of Claim	357
A. Sending Statement of Claim to Arbitral Institution	357
B. Pitfalls and Precautions	358
17TH SCENARIO
The Administration of the Statement of Claim by the German Institution of Arbitration (DIS)	359
Question 1
Which Version of the DIS Rules Applies?	360
A. Application of New Version of Arbitration Rules	360
B. Moment of Commencement of Arbitration	360
Question 2
Examination of Statement of Claim by Arbitral Institution	361
A. Examination of Arbitration Clause and Amount in Dispute	361
B. Termination of Arbitration in Case of Non-payment of Fee	362
Question 3
Involvement of Arbitral Institution	362
A. Purely Administrative Task of Arbitral Institution	362
B. Different Degree of Involvement of Arbitral Institutions	364

C.	Distribution of Tasks between Arbitral Institution and Arbitral Tribunal	364
1.	Prima Facie Examination of Arbitration Agreement	365
2.	Examination of Final Award	366
Question 4
	Correct Filing of Statement of Claim	367
A.	Numbers of Copies Required	367
B.	Consequences if Statement Not Filed in Sufficient Copies	367
Question 5
	Payment of Fees by Claimant	368
A.	General Considerations	368
B.	Calculation of Fee and Advance	369
1.	Administrative Fee	369
2.	Provisional Advance	369
C.	Balance of Advance	370
18TH SCENARIO
	The Respondent's Reaction	373
Question 1
	Jurisdictional Pitfalls	374
A.	The Effects of Silence	374
B.	Jurisdiction First!	375
Question 2
	Court Control of Arbitral Jurisdiction	376
A.	Prior to the Constitution of the Tribunal	376
B.	After the Constitution of the Tribunal	377
Question 3
	Contacting Candidates for Party-Appointed Arbitrator	378
A.	'Ex Parte' Contacts between Party and Candidate	378
B.	Interviews with Candidates	379
19TH SCENARIO
	Constitution of the Tribunal	383
Question 1
	'Nomination' - 'Appointment' - 'Constitution'	384
A.	Nomination/Appointment of the Arbitrators	384
B.	Constitution of the Tribunal	385

Table of Contents

---

1.	Appointment of Arbitrator versus Constitution of Arbitral Tribunal	385
2.	Moment of Transfer of Control	385
Question 2
	Contract between Arbitrator and Party	386
A.	The Arbitrator's Contract	386
B.	Conclusion of Arbitrator's Contract	387
C.	Arbitrators' Immunity from Liability	387
D.	No Form Requirement for Arbitrator's Contract	388
Question 3
	The Chairman of the Arbitral Tribunal	388
A.	Appointment of Chairman in Case of Disagreement between Party-Appointed Arbitrators	388
B.	Qualifications and Qualities of a Chairman	390
Question 4
	Party Agreements on Qualifications of Arbitrators	391
A.	The Binding Nature of the Parties' Proposals	391
B.	Advisability of Party Agreements	391
C.	Nationality of the Arbitrators	392
	1. Chairman	392
	2. Party-Appointed Arbitrators	393
Question 5
	Appointment of Non-lawyers as Arbitrators	393
A.	Non-lawyers as Arbitrators in Standard Commercial Arbitrations	393
	1. Requirements of Arbitration Rules	393
	2. Preference for Lawyers	394
B.	Non-lawyers as Arbitrators in Specialized Commodity Arbitrations	395
20TH SCENARIO
	Case Management and Challenge of the Tribunal's Jurisdiction	397
Question 1
	Fixing a City as the Seat of the Arbitration	398
Question 2
	Fixing the Language of the Proceedings	399
A.	Fixing the Language of the Arbitration	399
	1. Agreement of the Parties	399
	2. Determination of Language by Arbitral Tribunal	399
B.	Language of Arbitration and Right to Be Heard	400

Question 3
Advisability of Proceedings on a 'Documents-Only' Basis		402
Question 4
Purpose of and Possible Topics for a Case Management Conference		403
A. Purpose of Case Management Conference		403
B. Topics for a Case Management Conference		404
1. General Topics		404
2. Party-Agreement or Procedural Order?		405
3. Use of Proactive Case Management Techniques		407
C. Psychological Effect of a Case Management Conference		408
D. Terms of Reference in ICC Arbitrations		409
Question 5
Waiver of Right to Raise Jurisdictional Objections		411
A. Waiver of a Party's Right to Object against Jurisdiction		411
B. Scope of a Party's Waiver of Right to Object		412
Question 6
The Principles of 'Kompetenz-Kompetenz' and 'Separability'		412
A. The Principle of 'Kompetenz-Kompetenz'		412
B. The Principle of 'Separability'		414
Question 7
The Tribunal's Options to Decide on Its Jurisdiction		417
A. Decision Denying Jurisdiction: Final Award on Jurisdiction		418
B. Decision Confirming Jurisdiction		418
1. Interim Decision on Jurisdiction		418
2. Decision on Jurisdiction in Final Award on the Merits		419
3. Provisional Nature of the Tribunal's 'Kompetenz-Kompetenz'		419
a. The International View		419
b. The Reverse Trend in the US		420
4. Tribunal Decision Denying Jurisdiction		422
5. Tribunal Decision Confirming Jurisdiction		422
Question 8
Validity of Arbitration Agreement		423
A. Substantive Validity		423
B. Formal Validity		425
Question 9
Agreement on Arbitration under DIS Arbitration Rules		427
A. Requirement of Arbitration Agreement		427
B. Arbitration Clauses in Standard Terms		427
C. 'Battle of Forms'		428

Table of Contents

---

1.	'Last Shot Rule'	429
2.	'Knock-Out Rule'	430
3.	The Principle of Presumptive Validity	431
4.	Examination of the Wording of No. 13.1 ECE Conditions	433
5.	Result of Interpretation under 'Last Shot' and 'Knock-Out' Rules	434
Question 10
	Formal Validity of Arbitration Clause in Standard Terms	435
A.	Contract Containing Reference	435
B.	Specific vs Global Reference	436
21ST SCENARIO
	Interim Measures of Protection	439
Question 1
	Authority for Arbitral Interim Relief	440
Question 2
	Types of Arbitral Interim Relief	441
A.	Mareva Injunction as Arbitral Interim Relief	441
B.	Other Types of Arbitral Interim Relief	442
Question 3
	Prerequisites for Arbitral Interim Relief	444
A.	Constitution of the Tribunal; 'Pre-Arbitral Referee' Procedures	445
B.	Request by One Party	446
C.	Other Prerequisites	446
D.	Deposit of Security	448
E.	Good Faith Declaration in Lieu of Interim Relief Orders	448
F.	Additional Fees for Interim Relief	449
Question 4
	Ex Parte Interim Relief	449
A.	'Ex Parte' Interim Relief and the Opponent's Right to Be Heard	449
B.	UNCITRAL's Approach in Art. 17 B and C Model Law 2006	450
C.	The Situation in Our Case	451
Question 5
	Enforceability of Interim Relief Orders	452
A.	Nature of Interim Relief Orders	452
B.	Provisional Nature of Interim Relief Orders	452
C.	Enforceability of Interim Relief Orders	453
D.	The Provisions on Enforcement of Arbitral Interim Relief Orders in the 2006 Version of the Model Law	454

Question 6
The Parties' Compliance with Non-enforceable Interim Relief Orders		455
Question 7
Interim Relief from the Courts		456
A. Arbitration Agreement and Interim Relief from Courts		456
B. Relationship between Interim Relief from Arbitrators and from Courts		456
22ND SCENARIO
Settlement in Arbitration; Request for Postponement; Change of Ownership in One of the Parties		459
Question 1
Settlement in Arbitration		460
A. Settlement Negotiations and Arbitration		460
B. Settlement Negotiations Outside the Hearing Room		461
C. Settlement Negotiations Inside the Hearing Room		461
1. Award or Settlement?		461
2. The 'Proactive' Role of the Tribunal		462
a. General Considerations		462
b. The CEDR Rules for the Facilitation of Settlement in International Arbitration		465
3. The Approach to Settlement in German Arbitrations		466
4. The Requirement of 'Informed Consent of the Parties'		469
5. Integration of Mediation Techniques		470
6. The Settlement Privilege		471
a. The General Principle		471
b. The Underlying Rationale		472
c. Scope and Limits of the Settlement Privilege		474
aa. Application to Strategic Documents Prepared for Use in Settlement Negotiations		474
bb. Offer of a Party's Own Statements, Views, Admissions and Concessions		475
cc. Good Faith Limitations		475
Question 2
Termination of Arbitration after Settlement of Dispute		476
A. Termination Order		476
B. Award on Agreed Terms		477
Question 3
Change of Ownership in a Party During the Arbitration		478

Table of Contents

---

23RD SCENARIO

Challenge of Arbitrator	481
Question 1
Standards and Procedures	482
A. The Concept of 'Independence' and 'Impartiality'	482
B. The Objective Nature of the Concept of 'Justifiable Doubts'	485
C. Challenge of Party-Appointed Arbitrators	487
Question 2
Business Contacts as Grounds for Challenge	490
A. Types of Business Contacts	490
B. Remoteness of Business Contacts	490
Question 3
Failure to Disclose as Ground for Challenge?	494
A. Arbitrator's Duty to Disclosure	494
B. Disclosure and Challenge: Subjective vs Objective Test	495
C. Non-disclosure and Challenge	498
Question 4
Waiver of Right to Challenge	501
A. Parties' Knowledge of Grounds for Challenge	501
B. Scope of Waiver	502
Question 5
Involvement of Arbitral Institution and Challenged Arbitrator	503
A. Involvement of Arbitral Institution in Challenge Procedure	503
B. Participation of Challenged Arbitrator in Tribunal's Vote on Challenge	503
Question 6
Challenges before Domestic Courts	504
A. Court Control of Challenge	504
B. No Delay of Arbitration; Misuse of The Right to Challenge	505
Question 7
Consequences of Successful Challenge	506
A. Appointment of Substitute Arbitrator	506
B. Repetition of Oral Hearing	506
Question 8
Resignation of Arbitrator	507

24TH SCENARIO

The First Day of the Hearing: The Legal Issues (I)	509
Question 1
Applicable Law Issues in International Arbitration	510
A. Possible Conflict-of-Laws Problems	510
B. Connection between Choice of Seat and Choice of Substantive Law	511
Question 2
Significance of Legal and Factual Issues	512
A. Dominance of Factual and Contractual Issues	512
B. Trade Usages	513
Question 3
Conflict Rules in Arbitration	514
A. Special Conflict-of-Laws Rule for Arbitrators	514
B. No Duty to Apply Conflict Rules of the Lex Fori	514
Question 4
Determination of the Law Applicable to the Contract	516
A. Choice of Law by the Parties	516
B. No Choice of Law by the Parties	517
1. The 'Closest-Connection' Test	517
2. Arbitral Practice	518
3. Significance of Conflict Rules of the Lex Fori ?	519
4. Transnational Law	519
C. The Law Applicable to the Contract	520
Question 5
Ascertaining the Contents of the Applicable Law	522
A. Tribunal's Duty to Find the Law	522
B. Approaches in Domestic Laws	522
C. Hybrid Approach in International Arbitration	522
D. Determination of Contents of Applicable Law and Parties' Right to Be Heard	524
Question 6
Claimant's Claim for Damages and Restitution of Down Payment	526
A. Damages	526
B. Restitution of Down Payment	527
Question 7
Possible Excuses for Non-performance	528
A. No. 10 ECE Conditions Not Applicable	528
B. Other Grounds for Excuse	529

Table of Contents

---

1.	The Non-Delivery by the South Korean Supplier Wang Hong CT Ltd	529
a.	The Basic Rule: The Seller Bears the Risk for his Supplier	529
b.	The Exception: Transfer of Risk to the Buyer	531
2.	The Southeast Asian Economic Crisis	533
a.	Force Majeure?	533
b.	Hardship?	534
c.	The 'Sacrifice Threshold' under the CISG	536
aa.	Legal Basis and Prerequisites	536
bb.	Legal Consequences	539
cc.	Application of the Concept in Our Case	540
d.	The Crucial Issue: Was ALT Aware of the Crisis When the Contract Was concluded in Early March 1997?	542
25TH SCENARIO
The First Day of the Hearing: The Legal Issues (II)		545
Question 1
Purpose and Effects of Penalty Clauses		546
A.	Purpose of Penalty Clause	546
B.	'In Terrorem' Effect of Penalty Clauses	547
Question 2
Penalty Claims and Avoidance of Contract		549
Question 3
Law Applicable to Penalty Clause		549
A.	Law Applicable to Penalty Clause Contained in CISG Contract	549
B.	Determination of Applicable Domestic Law	550
Question 4
Duty to Pay Penalty and Excuse of Non-performance		551
A.	Excuse from Performance under Penalty Clause	551
B.	Interplay between Domestic Law Applicable to Penalty Clause and Art. 79 CISG	551
Question 5
Unreasonably High Penalty		552
A.	Reduction of Sum Forfeited under Penalty Clause	552
B.	Balance of Interests	553
Question 6
Relationship between Penalty Claim and Claim for Damages		553
A.	Exclusive or Non-exclusive Nature of Penalty Clauses	553
B.	Penalty and Damages for Non-delivery	554

Question 7
Set-Off in Arbitration	554
A. The Cross-Claim that Is Subject to an ICC Arbitration Clause	554
B. The Interim Award on Liability	557
Question 8
Law Applicable to Set-Off	558
Question 9
Interest Claims in International Arbitration	559
Question 10
Determination of Interest Rate	560
A. The Gap in the CISG	560
B. The Conflict of Laws Approach	560
C. Filling the Gap with a Damage-Oriented View	560
Question 11
The Decision on Costs	562
A. Arbitrator's Decision on Costs	562
B. Guidelines for the Allocation of Costs	563
C. Reasonableness of Cost for Legal Representation	564
D. Costs of In-House Counsel	565
26TH SCENARIO
The Second Day of the Hearing: Taking of Evidence	567
Question 1
'Hybrid' Taking of Evidence Procedures	569
A. Clash of Legal Cultures	569
B. Best Practice Standards	570
Question 2
Witness Evidence	570
A. Means of Evidence	570
B. Witness Evidence	571
1. Types of Witnesses	571
2. Taking of Oaths	572
3. Direct, Cross- and Re-direct Examination	572
4. Written Witness Statements instead of Direct Testimony	573
5. Coaching of Witnesses	574
Question 3
Written Witness Statements	576
A. Purpose of Written Witness Statements	576

Table of Contents

---

B.	Contents of Witness Statement	577
C.	Appearance of Witness before Tribunal	578
Question 4
Discovery Procedures before Domestic Courts		579
A.	Purpose of Discovery	579
B.	'Nuisance Value' of Discovery Procedures	580
C.	Restrictive Use of Discovery in US Domestic Arbitration	581
Question 5
Document Production in International Arbitration (I)		583
A.	Frequency and Timing of Document Production	583
B.	Request to Produce	584
1.	Prerequisites under Art. 3.3 IBA Rules on the Taking of Evidence	584
2.	The Special Problem of Internal Documents	589
3.	E-Discovery: No Need for New Rules	590
4.	The Document Production Process, 'Redfern-Schedule', Confidentiality	592
Question 6
Document Production in International Arbitration (II)		594
A.	Consequence of Party's Failure to Produce Document	594
B.	Counsel's Ethical Duties in Document Production	595
C.	Tribunal's Right to Order Document Production Absent Request from Party	597
Question 7
Court Assistance in Taking of Evidence		597
A.	The Courts' Authority to Assist Arbitral Tribunals	597
B.	Court's Duty to Apply Own Lex Fori	598
1.	No Discovery Order by German Court	598
2.	US Court's Powers to Assist Tribunals in Discovery	598
a.	Assistance for Domestic Tribunals	598
b.	International Tribunals Sitting Outside the US	599
C.	Arbitrator's Reluctance to Request Court Assistance	601
Question 8
Evidentiary Privileges		602
A.	Privileges	602
B.	Differences in Privileges and Equal Treatment of Parties	605
Question 9
Evaluation of Evidence by International Arbitrators		607
A.	Absence of Best Practice Standards	607

B.	The General Principle: 'The Burden of Proof Goes with the Burden of Pleading'	608
C.	Evaluation of Probative Value of the Telephone Memorandum	608
Question 10
Difference between Negotiation, Mediation and Arbitration		609
A.	'Win/Win' vs 'Win/Lose'	609
B.	Judgmental Overconfidence and Selective Perception	610
Question 11
Costs for Translation of Documentary Evidence		611
A.	General Cost Decision includes Translation Costs	611
B.	Distribution of Costs for Translations	611
27TH SCENARIO
Deliberation of the Tribunal and Rendering of the Award		613
Question 1
The Tribunal's Authority to Close the Proceedings		614
A.	Closure of Proceedings	614
B.	Significance of Closing Order	614
C.	Reopening of Proceedings after Closing Order	616
Question 2
Deliberations and Drafting of Award		617
A.	Final Deliberations of Tribunal	617
B.	Drafting of Award	618
C.	The Role of Tribunal Secretaries	619
	1. Transparency of Appointment Process	619
	2. Scope of Assistance for the Tribunal's Decision-Making	620
Question 3
Dissenting Opinions		626
A.	Practice of Dissenting Opinions	626
B.	Communication of Dissenting Opinions to Parties	628
Question 4
The Recalcitrant Arbitrator		629
A.	Refusal of Arbitrator to Take Part in Voting	629
B.	Admissibility to Continue Arbitration as Truncated Tribunal	630
C.	Appointment of Substitute Arbitrator after Removal of Arbitrator	632

Table of Contents

---

Question 5
The Award	633
A. Form and Contents of Arbitral Award	633
B. Nationality of Award/Place Where Award Was Made	633
C. Reasons	634
Question 6
Missing Signatures under Award	635
Question 7
Awards vs Procedural Orders	636
A. Typology of Arbitral Awards	636
1. Finality and 'Res Iudicata'	636
2. Final and Partial Final Arbitral Awards	638
3. Interim ('Interlocutory', 'Preliminary') Awards	639
B. Procedural Orders	640
28TH SCENARIO
Correction, Interpretation and Setting Aside of the Award	643
Question 1
Correction of Awards	644
A. Arbitral Institutions' Control of Mistakes of the Tribunal in Drafting the Award	644
B. Legal Basis for Correction and Supplementation of Award	645
C. NedTrans' Request for Correction	645
D. NedTrans' Request for Decision on Costs	646
E. Additional Fee	646
Question 2
Interpretation of Awards	647
A. Interpretation of Award by Tribunal	647
B. Request for Interpretation as Disguised Attempt to Reopen Proceedings	647
Question 3
Combination of Correction and Additional Decision on Costs	649
Question 4
Setting Aside of Awards (I)	650
A. Purpose of Provisions on Challenge of Awards	650
1. The Exclusivity of Setting Aside Actions; Revision of Awards	651
2. No Révision Au Fond: The Principle of Finality of Awards	652
B. The Grounds for Setting Aside	655

Question 5
Setting Aside of Awards (II)	656
A. Competent Court for Setting Aside	656
B. Mandatory Oral Hearing; Appeal	656
Question 6
Setting Aside of Awards (III)	657
A. Exclusion Agreements	657
1. Admissibility of Exclusion Agreements	657
2. 'Second Look Doctrine' under New York Convention	658
B. Waiver of Right to Challenge	660
Question 7
Setting Aside of Awards (IV)	661
A. Requirements for Challenge of Award	661
B. Final Arbitral Award	661
1. Court's Prerogative to Examine Arbitrator's Decision	661
2. Interim Awards	662
3. Awards Confirming Jurisdiction	663
4. Awards Denying Jurisdiction	663
C. Grounds for Setting Aside	664
1. The Tribunal's Alleged Misinterpretation of Art. 79 CISG and of the Hardship Concept	664
a. The 'Chameleon-Like' Concept of Public Policy	664
aa. Examples	665
bb. Violation of EU Antitrust Law	666
b. The Arbitrator's Wrongful Application of the Law	666
2. The Tribunal's Refusal to Attach Dr Regli's Dissenting Opinion to the Award	672
3. The Tribunal's Refusal to Hear an Expert Witness Nominated by ALT	672
4. No Notification to ALT of NedTrans' Motion for Correction and Additional Award on Costs	676
Question 8
Setting Aside of Awards (V)	678
A. Effects of Setting Aside	678
B. Remitting Case to Arbitral Tribunal after Setting Aside	678
29TH SCENARIO
Enforcement of the Award	681
Question 1
Recognition and Enforcement of Awards	682
A. Award as Decision of Private Judge	682

Table of Contents

---

B.	Meaning of Recognition and Enforcement	682
Question 2
Compliance with Award by the Losing Party		683
A.	Frequency of Voluntary Compliance with Award	683
B.	Reasons for Voluntary Compliance with Award by Losing Party	683
Question 3
Requirements for Recognition and Enforcement		684
Question 4
Setting Aside and Enforcement		685
A.	Relationship between Setting Aside at Seat of Arbitration and Enforcement Abroad	685
B.	Parallels between Grounds for Setting Aside and Grounds for Refusal of Enforcement	686
Question 5
Significance of Art. V New York Convention		687
A.	Pro-Arbitration Bias of Art. V New York Convention	687
B.	Errors of Fact or Law No Ground for Refusal of Enforcement	688
Bibliography		691
Subject Index		729