Conclusion 40

3 Student teachers in pregradual education: transformations 43
3.1 University study and its transformations in terms of conditions affecting students 43

6.1.2 Students' motivation for studying 108
6.1.3 Methods used by students when preparing for exams ... 110
6.1.4 Study approaches 112
6.2 Study environment of monitored Faculties of Education 116
6.2.1 Brief description of the study environment of both faculties 116
6.2.2 Teaching methods used by lecturers 120
6.2.3 Students' activities in lessons 122
6.2.4 Requirements of students for course completion 123
6.3 Study results 125
6.3.1 Study results and subjective effectiveness of learning ... 125
6.3.2 Learning difficulties (frequency, types, solutions) 127
6.3.3 Satisfaction with professional training 132

7 First part of main findings of Probe 2: Strategies of learning from text used by students at monitored Faculties of Education 135
7.1 Strategies used by students BEFORE learning from text 136
7.2 Strategies used by students DURING learning from text 138
7.2.1 Reading methods 139
7.2.2 Strategies facilitating comprehension and retaining knowledge during learning from text 141
7.2.3 Strategies of note taking from text 144
7.2.4 Strategies during difficulties with text comprehension ... 148
7.3 Strategies used by students AFTER reading from text 151
7.3.1 Strategies for processing of new knowledge 151
7.3.2 Strategies for learning during revision of the text contents 154
7.3.3 Strategies used when retrieving information from text 157
7.3.4 Strategies used for difficulties in retrieving specific information from text 159
Conclusion 161
7.4 Strategies of learning from text in terms of effectiveness 162

8 Second part of main findings of Probe 2: Further aspects of learning from text from the point of view of students at Czech and Polish Faculties of Education 171
8.1 Students' subjective evaluation of their own qualities 172
8.1.1 Subjective evaluation of one's own learning from text ... 172

8.2 Contexts of learning from text – anthropogenic factors 180
Conclusion 183

9 Probes 1 and 2: Statistically significant relationships, evaluation of research questions 186
9.1 Statistically significant relationships in the field of study strategies (Probe 1) 187
9.1.1 Research question 1 187
9.1.2 Research question 2 189
9.1.3 Research question 3 191
9.1.4 Research question 4 197
9.2 Statistically significant relationships in the field of learning from text (Probe 2) 200
9.2.1 Research question 5 200
9.2.2 Research question 6 205

10 Discussion and Conclusion 209
10.1 Research on future teachers from the perspective of learning approaches 209
10.2 Profiles of Polish and Czech students in terms of learning from text 218
Conclusion 222

3.2 The risks connected with selected aspects of university study and their reflection on students' evaluation of courses 46
3.3 Reflected individuality of the student teacher as a basis for future professional life 49
Conclusion 54

4 Basis and objectives of the research: Probes 1 and 2 55
4.1 Probe 1: Learning strategies of future teachers – conceptual framework and research objectives 56
4.1.1 Learning strategies – cognitive styles – learning styles – learning approaches 57
4.1.2 Academic achievement: conditions, factors 60
4.1.3 An overview of research objectives of Probe 1 64
4.2 Probe 2: Students' strategies for learning from text – conceptual framework and research objectives 66
4.2.1 Learning from text – theoretical basis 68
4.2.2 Reading, reading skills and strategies 72
4.2.3 Strategies for learning from text 79
4.2.4 Research into strategies for learning from text and the findings thereof 85
Conclusion 87
4.2.5 An overview of research objectives of Probe 2 88

5 Research Methodology 90
5.1 Data Collection and Processing 90
5.2 Description of the Research Sample 91
5.3 Detailed Description of Questionnaires 92
5.3.1 Learning Style – ASI (Probe 1) Questionnaire 92
5.3.2 "My University Studies and I" (Probe 1) Questionnaire .. 97
5.3.3 "Learning from Text" (Probe 2) Questionnaire 99

6 Main findings of Survey 1: Study strategies of students at Faculties of Education in the Czech Republic and Poland 102
6.1 Individual characteristics of students at the faculties in question 102
6.1.1 Students' motivation for the teaching profession 103
