

Contents

Preface xiii

1 Foundations of Qualitative Research for Education 1

Characteristics of Qualitative Research 3

Traditions of Qualitative Research 8

 Disciplinary Traditions 8

 Chicago Sociology 9

 The Sociology of Education 10

 European Connections and the Social Survey Movement 11

 Ideological and Political Practices 14

 Ideologies and Social Change 15

 Politics and Theory in the Academy 18

Theoretical Underpinnings 24

 Phenomenological Approach 25

 Symbolic Interaction 27

 A Story 29

 Culture 30

 Ethnomethodology 32

 The Current Theoretical Scene: Cultural Studies, Feminisms, Postmodernism,
 Critical Theory, and Institutional Ethnography 33

 On Methods and Methodology 35

Eleven Common Questions about Qualitative Research 35

Ethics 48

What Is to Come 53

2 Research Design 54

Choosing a Study 56

Case Studies 59

Historical Organizational Case Studies	60
Observational Case Studies	60
Life History	63
Documents	64
Other Forms of Case Studies	66
Case-Study Design Issues	66
Multicase Studies	69

Multisite Studies 70

Modified Analytic Induction	70
The Constant Comparative Method	73
Multi-Sited Ethnography	75

Additional Issues Related to Design 76

Proposal Writing	76
Interview Schedules and Observer Guides	79
Team Research and the Lone Ranger	80
Qualitative Research and Historical Research	80

Concluding Remarks 81

3 Fieldwork 82

Gaining Access 84

First Days in the Field 89

The Participant/Observer Continuum 91

Doing Fieldwork in Another Culture 93

Researcher Characteristics and Special Problems with Rapport 94

Be Discreet 98

Researching in Politically Charged and Conflict-Ridden Settings 100

Feelings 101

Interviewing 103

Focus Groups	109
Audio Recording	112

Visual Recording and Fieldwork 112

Triangulation 115

Leaving the Field 116

4	Qualitative Data	117
	Some Friendly Advice	118
	Fieldnotes	118
	The Content of Fieldnotes	120
	The Form of Fieldnotes	124
	The Process of Writing Fieldnotes	126
	Transcripts from Taped Interviews	129
	The Form of Transcripts	129
	Recording Equipment	131
	Documents	133
	Personal Documents	133
	Official Documents	136
	Popular Culture Documents	138
	Photography	141
	Found Photographs	142
	Researcher-Produced Photographs	151
	Photographs as Analysis	152
	Technique and Equipment	152
	Official Statistics and Other Quantitative Data	154
	Concluding Remarks	157
5	Data Analysis and Interpretation	159
	Analysis and Interpretation in the Field	160
	More Tips	171
	Analysis and Interpretation after Data Collection	172
	Developing Coding Categories	173
	Preassigned Coding Systems	180
	Influences on Coding and Analysis	180
	The Mechanics of Working with Data	184
	Computers and Data Analysis	187
	Interpretation	197
	Concluding Remarks	197

6 Writing It Up 198

Writing Choices 199

- Decisions about Your Argument 199
- Decisions about Your Presence in the Text 201
- Decisions about Your Audience 202
- Decisions about Disciplines 203
- Decisions about the Introduction 204
- Decisions about the Core of the Paper and Strategies for Communicating Evidence 20
- Decisions about the Conclusion 209

More Writing Tips 209

- Call It a Draft 209
- Styles of Presentation 210
- Overwriting 211
- "Yes. But...?" 212
- Keep It Simple Up Front 212
- Whose Perspective Are You Writing From? 212
- Jargon and Code 213
- On Giving Voice 214
- General Advice 215

Criteria for Evaluating Writing 215

- Is It Convincing? 216
- Is the Author in Control of the Writing? 216
- Does It Make a Contribution? 217

Texts 217

A Final Point about Getting Started 218

7 Applied Qualitative Research for Education 219

Evaluation and Policy Research 223

- Head Start: Description of a Case Study 223
- Head Start: Discussion of a Case Study 224
- Getting Funds 224
- Relations between the Contractor and the Researcher 225
- The Research Site 227
- Feedback 228
- The Audience 229
- Timetables 229
- A Values-Based Approach to Policy Research 229

More on the Study	231
Selecting Sites	231
Field Relations	232
Analysis and Dissemination	232
Theoretical and Conceptual Understanding	233
Action Research	234
The Case of It Not Adding Up: Description	235
The Case of It Not Adding Up: Discussion	237
Political Action Research	237
What Action Research Can Do	239
The Action Research Approach to Data	240
Action Research and the Qualitative Tradition	242
Practitioner Uses of Qualitative Research	243
Employing Qualitative Research to Improve Your Teaching	244
The Qualitative Approach and Teacher Education	245
Appendix A Examples of Observational Questions for Educational Settings	249
Appendix B Example of Fieldnotes	260
Glossary	271
References	276
Index	297