

Contents

Foreword	7
Statements by policy makers	9
Bohuslav Sobotka, Prime Minister of the Czech Republic	11
Jan Mládek, Minister of Industry and Trade of the Czech Republic	13
Josef Středula, President of the Czech-Moravian Confederation of Trade Unions	15
 Jan Drahokoupil and Béla Galgóczi
Introduction
Foreign direct investment in eastern and southern European countries: still an engine of growth?	19
 Gábor Hunya
Mapping flows and patterns of foreign direct investment in central and eastern Europe, Greece and Portugal during the crisis	37
 Gergő Medve-Bálint
Changes below the still surface? Regional patterns of foreign direct investment in post-crisis central and eastern Europe	71
 Tibor T. Meszmann
'Structural reforms' during the adjustment period: do competitiveness- enhancing measures lead to an increase in FDI?	103
 Ricardo Aláez-Aller, Carlos Gil-Canaleta and Miren Ullibarri-Arce
FDI in the automotive plants in Spain during the Great Recession	139
 Joaquim Ramos Silva
Foreign direct investment in the context of the financial crisis and bailout: Portugal	171

Petr Pavlínek
Foreign direct investment and the development of the automotive industry in central and eastern Europe	209
Magdolna Sass
FDI trends and patterns in electronics	257
Grzegorz Micek
FDI trends in the business services sector: the case of Poland	297
Adrian Smith and John Pickles
Global value chains and business models in the central and eastern European clothing industry	319
Vera Trappman
Steel in the European Union in the wake of the global economic crisis	355
About the authors	377