

Detailed Table of Contents

Foreword	v
Foreword from First Edition	vii
Preface	ix
Preface from First Edition	x
Contents	xiii
About the Contributors	xix
I. The Birth and Early Life of the Basic Law of Hungary	1
1. Characteristics of Hungarian Constitution-Making before the Transition	1
2. Constitutional history affecting the Basic Law	2
3. Constitutional attempts at the time of the Transition and after	4
4. The necessity of the new Constitution and the adoption of the Basic Law	7
5. The denomination “Basic Law” and the constructive force of the National Avowal.....	10
6. Relations with trans-border Hungarians	13
7. The right to vote of Hungarians living beyond the borders.....	14
8. Sources of inspiration for the regulation of fundamental rights ...	15
9. The case of cardinal statutes	17
10. The protection of the Constitution: issues arising	19
11. Links between the Transitional Provisions and the amendments to the Basic Law: issues arising.....	23
12. The First Five Amendments to the Basic Law: issues arising.....	26
13. Conclusions.....	31
II. The National Avowal: An Interpretation of the Preamble, from the Perspective of the History of Political Thought	35
1. The genre and its consequences.....	36
2. The National Avowal as an interpretative tool and as a catalogue of basic values	49
III. Constituent and Constitutional Entities	57
1. Nation and state	57

2. Constitutional entities	59
3. The person	60
4. Marriage and family	60
5. Communities.....	61
IV. Sources of Law	63
1. Institutional background	63
2. The scope of legislators	68
3. Statutes and decrees.....	69
4. Cardinal statutes.....	70
5. The hierarchy of the sources of law.....	72
6. Constitutional rules on legislation	76
V. Rights and Freedoms.....	79
1. Introduction.....	79
2. The regulation of freedoms in the Basic Law.....	81
3. Conclusions.....	122
VI. The Parliament.....	123
1. Traditions of Hungarian parliamentarism.....	123
2. Key issues of Hungarian parliamentary law	126
3. The Parliament and the representatives in the new Basic Law....	136
4. Amendments to the Basic Law and further legislation following 2011	141
VII. The President of the Republic	153
1. The nature of the power of the head of state	153
2. The institution of head of state in Hungary	154
3. Regulation of the Basic Law.....	158
4. Beyond the text.....	162
VIII. The Government and Public Administration	163
1. Historical development of the government system	163
2. General status of the Government	165
3. The Government in the Basic Law	166
4. Public administration in the Basic Law	179
IX. The Constitutional Court	185
1. The beginnings of constitutional adjudication in Hungary.....	185

Detailed Table of Contents

2. The first twenty years of the Constitutional Court	187
3. Changes in 2010–2011	188
4. The pertaining regulations of the Basic Law	190
Conclusion	196
X. The Courts and the Judiciary	197
1. General framework and related provisions	197
2. The separation of powers and administering justice/judiciary ...	199
3. The judicial review of administrative acts and the rule of law	204
4. The judiciary, organisation and the monopoly of justice	213
5. The independence of judges and the principles of operation of the courts	218
XI. Prosecution Service	225
1. Historic milestones of regulation	225
2. Frameworks given by the Basic Law	228
3. European standards in evolution	235
4. Recommendation-2	237
5. New statutes on Prosecution System	240
XII. The Commissioner for Fundamental Rights	245
1. Ombudsmen in Hungary	245
2. Role of ombudsmen	246
3. Efficiency	249
4. The new approach of the Basic Law	251
5. Doubts and their solutions	255
XIII. Local Governments	259
1. The constitutional status of local governments in the Constitution	259
2. General approach – the Basic Law as the framework of the local self-government system	262
3. The legal status and autonomy of local governments (powers, responsibilities, authority)	265
4. The delegated legislation and omission	271
5. Internal organisation and subjects	273
6. The elections and the political term of self-governments	274

XIV. Law Enforcement.....	277
1. History and basics.....	277
2. Constitutional framework	279
3. Contrasting changes of the texts	282
4. The most relevant changes (2011-2014) in Law Enforcement in Hungary	284
5. Fourth Amendment, Homelessness (Article 8)	287
XV. Defence Administration	289
1. Conceptual pillars	289
2. The direction of the army and defence administration	293
3. Military duties and obligations	302
XVI. Special Legal Orders.....	305
1. Historical overview.....	305
2. General remarks on the new regulation	307
3. Role of the constitutional institutions in special legal orders	311
4. Limits of power in special legal orders.....	317
XVII. Public Finances.....	321
1. Finances and financial law in the Constitution in general.....	321
2. Public finances in the Constitution of Hungary.....	327
3. Public finances in the Basic Law	335
Basic Law of Hungary	345
Index	399