

Contents

The Authors	vii
1 The idea of a fake society	1
introduction and summary
Digby Anderson and Peter Mullen
2 Life before health	19
against the sentimentalising of medicine
Bruce Charlton
3 Evading personal responsibility	39
the sentimentalisation of social policy
Nicholas Capaldi
4 Sweetness and light in schools	53
the sentimentalisation of children
Bruce S Cooper and Dennis O’Keeffe
5 Back to a simple and pure nature	81
sentimentality and the environmental movement
Jo Kwong
6 All feelings and no doctrine	101
the sentimentalisation of religion
Peter Mullen

7	Faking emotion sentimentality in modern literature Ian Robinson	119
8	The pity of self-pity the sentimentalisation of music Balint Vazsonyi	137
9	Self-indulgence, childishness and puritanism the sentimentalisation of civilised eating Digby Anderson	147
10	All Venusians now sentimentality in the media Mark Steyn	161
11	Diana, queen of hearts sentimentality personified and canonised Anthony O'Hear	181
12	The corruption of Christianity the history and origins of sentimentality Lucy Sullivan	191
	Notes and references	213