

Contents

Introduction.....	7
--------------------------	----------

Specific Technical English—Biomedical Engineering

1	Brain on a Chip Could be Hit to Mind Drugs	11
2	Embryonic Hope.....	17
3	Roman Nose Sniffs out People with Lung Cancer	23
4	Needle Free “Biopsy” Pins Down Tumours.....	31
5	Hitting the Nerve.....	35
6	Colour Vision.....	43
7	Endoscope Goes where None Has Been Before	49
8	Special Chapter: Reading and Discussion	55
8.1	Listening Exercise	55
8.1.1	Invention Enigmatic Banknotes.....	55
8.1.2	Atomic Hammer Flattens Mirrors	56
8.1.3	Sound Approach to Biotech	56
9	Sperm Magnet to Help Infertile Man	59

Specific Technical English—Computer Science and Electrical Engineering, Miscellaneous

10	Pictures That Hide Your True Identity.....	65
11	Alchemy	71
12	Driven to.....	77
13	Quantum Computers	81
14	Hacking at Light Speed.....	87
15	Efficient Lighting	93
16	Internet Traffic Cops Could Foil Website Hackers	101
17	Magnetic Trick Breathes New Life into MiniDiscs.....	109
18	Constants Stay Put for Now	115
19	Quadramagicology.....	119
20	The Impossible Puzzle.....	127

Special Focus Units—Listening and Reading Comprehension

21	In Search for Scientific Truth	135
22	A Moral Dilemma.....	141
23	Ghost in the Machine	147
24	I, Computer.....	157

General Business English

25	Making your Presentation	169
26	Clear and Coherent Writing.....	187
27	At a Conference.....	191
28	Application Forms and Interviews	195
29	Word Formation—Prefixes	201
30	Word Formation—Suffixes	203
31	Abbreviations	205
32	Dictionary of False Friends	207
33	Bonus Joke	211
References		213