

Contents

Krzysztof Michalski Introduction	1
Bronislaw Geremek Thinking about Europe as a Community	5
Kurt Biedenkopf "United in Diversity": What Holds Europe Together?	13
Ernst-Wolfgang Böckenförde Conditions for European Solidarity	30
Heather Grabbe What Hope for Solidarity in the Enlarged Union?	42
Janos Matyas Kovacs Between Resentment and Indifference: Narratives of Solidarity in the Enlarging Union	54
Jacques Rupnik The European Union's Enlargement to the East and Solidarity ...	86
Kurt Biedenkopf, Bronislaw Geremek, Krzysztof Michalski and Michel Rocard What Holds Europe Together? Concluding Remarks	93
COMMENTS
Samuel Abrahám Needed but Uncertain Cohesion	103
Giuliano Amato Building Europe	106
Rainer Bauböck Intersecting and Overlapping European Cultures	112
Ján Čarnogurský It is Necessary to Believe in Europe	117
Ute Frevert Does Europe Need a Cultural Identity? Ten Critical Remarks ...	121

Danuta Hübner Solidarity on Trial	126
Lech Kaczynski Europe—Still Divided	131
Ira Katznelson Reflections on Solidarity	137
Ivan Krastev Europe's Solidarity Deficit	143
Claus Leggewie Turkey's EU Membership as a Litmus Test of European Self-Confidence	146
Ulrike Lunacek European and Global Solidarity	151
Michael Mertes What Distinguishes Europe?	157
Alexei Miller European Culture, an Ambivalent Heritage	165
Kenneth Murphy Solidarity and Freedom	167
Anton Pelinka Europe is not Europe is not Europe	171
Mykola Riabchuk Making Barbecue in the European Garden	175
Jan Rokita Solidarity under Threat	178
Paul Scheffer Islam in Europe	181
Timothy Snyder United Europe, Divided History	185
List of Contributors	189