

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Introduction                             | 4   |
| Teaching notes                    |     |
| Academic orientation                     | 6   |
| Unit 1                                   | 9   |
| Unit 2                                   | 21  |
| Seminar skills A                         | 29  |
| Unit 3                                   | 35  |
| Unit 4                                   | 44  |
| Seminar skills B                         | 53  |
| Unit 5                                   | 58  |
| Unit 6                                   | 69  |
| Lecture skills C                         | 80  |
| Unit 7                                   | 85  |
| Unit 8                                   | 96  |
| Lecture skills D                         | 106 |
| Unit 9                                   | 111 |
| Unit 10                                  | 122 |
| Lecture skills E                         | 130 |
| Photocopiable resources           |     |
| Photocopiable activities: instructions   | 134 |
| Photocopiable activities                 | 140 |
| Photocopiable lecture and seminar slides | 158 |

Cambridge Academic English is for any...
 Often come from verbs or...
 Using the Teacher's Book...
 The main intention of this Teacher's Book...
 The notes have been prepared in the best way possible...
 in the book, focusing in particular on the...
 and reference point for more experienced...
 inexperienced teachers or teachers who... best way possible. The notes have been...
 prepared in the best way possible.

Listening and speaking
 Introducing your presentation...
 7.1...
 Specific teaching...
 Book activities...
 Recommended...
 A type of taxation...
 B voting systems...
 Full and detailed...
 answer keys...

...is a collection of written...
 British and American English... and seminars. In both parts... in addition to the CAEC, we have...
 students taking the IELTS...
 - contractions (That's)
 - contractions (That's)
 We use the CAEC to... provide authentic examples of how language is used, and to give you useful facts about how often...
 and in what contexts certain words and phrases are used in academic writing.