

Contents

Basic approaches

- |   |   |    |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | Learner needs, teacher skills and classroom resources | 5  |
| 2 | Five approaches to the classroom                      | 10 |
| 3 | Making the best of a bad job                          | 13 |

Speaking and listening

- |    |   |    |
|----|---|----|
| 4  | Oral ability                                  | 18 |
| 5  | Helping students to talk: a balanced approach | 23 |
| 6  | Helping students to learn to listen           | 26 |
| 7  | Keep them guessing!                           | 28 |
| 8  | Three interaction activities                  | 30 |
| 9  | What can we do with the whole class?          | 34 |
| 10 | Group work                                    | 36 |
| 11 | Cuecards                                      | 39 |
| 12 | Simulation work with large classes            | 41 |

Reading and writing

- |    |  |    |
|----|--|----|
| 13 | Helping students to read — for pleasure and profit | 46 |
| 14 | Entrances and exits — some notes on reading        | 49 |
| 15 | Helping students to learn to write                 | 52 |
| 16 | Picture composition: a fresh look                  | 56 |
| 17 | Writing can be fun!                                | 60 |
| 18 | Writing in class                                   | 75 |
| 19 | Project 'Newsmag'                                  | 80 |

Using visuals

- |    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 20 | Visuals in language teaching                   | 83  |
| 21 | Using cutouts — imaginatively                  | 92  |
| 22 | Desert Island revisited                        | 96  |
| 23 | Sixteen picture cards — and some of their uses | 100 |
| 24 | Maps as a language teaching aid                | 108 |

Younger learners

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 25 | Interaction activities for younger learners | 112 |
| 26 | Writing activities for young learners       | 118 |

Teacher training

- |    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 27 | Setting up a self-access display of visual materials | 130 |
| 28 | PARK: a programme of thematically related activities | 136 |