

Contents

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction Federico Fabbrini and Vicki C. Jackson	1
PART 1 INTERNATIONAL CONSTITUTIONALISM AND ANTI-TERRORISM FINANCE MEASURES
2 United Nations law: substantive constitutionalism through human rights versus formal hierarchy through Article 103 of the Charter Martin Scheinin	15
3 (Implicit) judicial favoring of human rights over United Nations Security Council sanctions: a manifestation of international constitutionalism? Erika de Wet	35
4 Heroic or hapless? The legal reform of counter-terrorism financial sanctions regimes in the European Union Karen Cooper and Clive Walker	52
5 The dynamics of transnational counter-terrorism law: towards a methodology, map, and critique Cian C. Murphy	78
PART 2 COUNTER-TERRORISM AND CONSTITUTIONAL MIGRATIONS
6 Translating rights across centuries: U.S. constitutional protection against unreasonable searches and seizures in a transnational era Vicki C. Jackson	101
7 Japanese efforts to have a secrecy law and a 'National Security Council': a runner who is one lap behind? or good things come to those who wait? Akiko Ejima	125
8 The deep dilemma of evidence in the global anti-terror campaign Kim Lane Scheppele	146

9	Reciprocal privacy: towards a transatlantic agreement David Cole and Federico Fabbrini	169
---	--	-----

PART 3 EXTRATERRITORIALITY, DETENTION, AND FREE SPEECH

10	Transnational seizures: the constitution and criminal procedure abroad Jennifer Daskal	191
11	The extra-territorial obligations of European states regarding human rights in the context of terrorism Brice Dickson	213
12	Detention at sea: the persistence of territorial constraints on constitutional rights Jonathan Hafetz	233
13	The extraterritorial First Amendment Anna Su	260

PART 4 INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL LAW, INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW, AND TERRORISM

14	Missing in action: the human eye Or Bassok	283
15	Unraveling the law of war Stephen Ellmann	305
16	Conclusion Lech Garlicki	323
	Index	337