

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Principal Abbreviations	xiii
Map	xx
Translation of Colossians, Chapters 1-4	1

INTRODUCTION

I. The City of Colossae	7
II. Pagan Cults and Jewish Presence in Phrygia	10
III. The Congregation at Colossae	17
IV. The Menace of a Religion	21
A. Sources	23
B. Tentative Results	28
C. Modern Analogies	39
V. The Structure, Character, and Purpose of Colossians	41
A. The Structure	41
B. The Character and Literary Genus	42
C. The Purpose	44
VI. The Text of the Epistle	48
VII. Vocabulary and Style	56
VIII. The Weight of Traditional Materials	64
IX. Colossians and Ephesians	72
A. Four Case Studies	73
B. Comparison of Vocabulary, Style, and Structure	80
C. Nuances in Common Doctrine	87
D. The Question of Dependence	101
E. Summary	112
X. The Problem of Authorship	114
A. The Case Against Colossians	114
B. For Authenticity of Colossians and Ephesians	117
C. For Authenticity of Either Colossians or Ephesians	121
D. Declaring Both Letters Spurious	122

Contents

E. Recognizing Authentic Fragments	125
XI. Date and Place	126

COLOSSIANS
TRANSLATION WITH NOTES AND COMMENTS

I. The Epistolary Address (1:1–2)	135
Notes	135
Comments I–IV to Col 1:1 + 2	142
I. Timothy, Co-worker of Paul, and the Question of Authorship	142
II. Co-workers Among Themselves	144
III. Brothers “in Christ”	145
IV. Conclusion	146
II. Thanksgiving, Intercession, and Hymn (1:3–23)	147
1. Thanksgiving (1:3–8)	147
Notes	147
Comments I–III to Col 1:3–8	166
I. The “Literary Plural” in Col	166
II. “God the Father”	168
III. Temporal and/or Spatial Hope	170
2. The Intercession (1:9–14)	172
Notes	172
3. The Hymn (1:15[12]–20)	193
Notes	194
4. The Conclusion of the Prayer of Thanksgiving and Intercession (1:21–23)	218
Notes	218
Comments I–V to Col 1:9–23	225
I. Light and Darkness	225
II. The Hymn	227
1. Structure, Literary Problems, and Authorship	227
2. Discussion of the Religiohistorical Background	236
3. Creation—Reconciliation—Reconciliation of All Things	242
III. “The First-born”	246
IV. The Image of God	248
V. The Church in the History of Israel	250
III. Paul, Servant of the Colossians (1:24–2:5)	251
Notes	252
Comments I–II to Col 1:24–2:5	289
I. What Is Still Lacking in the Sufferings of Christ	289

Contents

II. The Revealed Secret	296
IV. The Threat to the Community (2:6–23)	298
1. The Messiah and “The Deceitful Religion” (2:6–15)	298
Notes	299
2. The Opponents (2:16–23)	336
Notes	337
Comments I–VI to Col 2:6–23	362
I. Nature and Grace	362
II. Circumcision—Baptism—Resurrection	363
III. The “Bill of Indictment” Against Us	369
IV. The “Elements of the World”	373
V. The “Threat” to the Colossian Community	378
1. The Problem	378
2. Attempts at Solution	379
3. The Opponents in the Epistle to the Colossians	384
VI. A Hymn in Col 2?	387
V. Exhortations (3:1–4:6)	390
1. The Old and the New Self (3:1–17)	390
Notes	391
2. The Haustafel (3:18–4:1)	432
Notes	433
3. Concluding Petitions and Exhortations (4:2–6)	451
Notes	451
Comments I–II to Col 3:1–4:6	458
I. Salvation in the Present and in the Future	458
II. The Haustafel	462
VI. The Conclusion of the Epistle (4:7–18)	475
Notes	475
Bibliography	491
I. Texts	491
1. Biblical Texts	491
2. Apocryphal Texts	491
3. Other Literature	491
II. General References	492
III. Commentaries to Colossians	493
IV. Literature on the Colossian Epistle	494
V. Other Literary References	501
Index of Scriptural References	515
Index of Premodern Sources	537
Index of Modern Authors	539
Index of Foreign Words	543
Index of Subjects	551