

Contents

	page
1 Introduction	1
2 Book One	16
Cephalus and Polemarchus: moral complacency	18
Thrasymachus	34
3 The Form of Plato's Argument	59
4 The Just Society	72
The first city	73
Education and philosophy of education	79
A sketch of the ideal state	101
5 Parts and Virtues of State and Soul	109
6 The Defence of Justice	153
7 Plato's State	170
Equality and rights	172
Fraternity and unity	178
Women's place	181
Is the ideal state possible?	185
8 Belief, Knowledge, and Understanding	190
9 The 'Theory' of Forms	217
10 Understanding and the Good: Sun, Line, and Cave	242
11 Philosophy and Mathematics	272
The propaedeutic studies	272
Dialectic	276

viii	Contents
12	The Benefits of Justice	294
	The types of unjust state and individual	294
	Justice and happiness in the individual	305
13	Plato's Moral Theories	321
14	Book Ten	335
	Poetry	336
	The ending of the Republic	344
	Select Bibliography	355
	Index	361

ERRATUM

The missing line 34 on p. 288 should read:
 knowledge forms a body which is not only structured, but