

Content

Introduction	6
PART 1
Chapter 1 Raquel Medina Plana: Law and Culture – A (Trans)disciplinary Journey into Critical Thinking at Law Schools	10
Chapter 2 Mateusz Pękala, Mateusz Stępień: The Relationship between Law and Magic – Preliminary Remarks	24
Chapter 3 Radek Visinger: Anthropological Legitimation of Restorative Justice – A Controversy (Why does the emergence of restorative justice have no direct link to conflict resolution and restitution practices in pre-modern and indigenous communities?)	35
Chapter 4 Tomáš Ledvinka: Cultural Determination of Jurisprudence and the Anthropology of Law – Problem Analysis	50
PART 2
Chapter 1 Jacek Kurczewski: Petrażycki in Melanesia – Where Pospíšil and Malinowski Meet	64
Chapter 2 Kateřina Varhaník Wildová: Requiring Justice through Non-human Actors – Drove-ways and Green Paths in Spain	78
Chapter 3 Adriana Mica: The “Anthropological Essence” of Scandal – The Ritualization of Party Moots related to Mass Protests in Late Communist Romania	88
Chapter 4 Jakub Wysmulek: Between Custom and Law – The Case of Late Medieval Krakow Wills	99
References	107