

Table of Contents

Introduction /6

I. Fons Beatae Mariae Virginis /10

II. The Life of Jan Blažej Santini-Aichel /16

III. Santini's Start in Žďár /26

Light and Shadow as Architectonic Matter: The Choir of the Fathers /27

The Lower Cemetery /36

The Well-Building, or the Medieval "Lavatorium" /38

IV. The Work of Jan Santini-Aichel on the Monastery Estate /39

Zvole, Church of St. Wenceslas /40

Horní Bobrová, Church of SS. Peter and Paul /43

Žďár nad Sázavou, Sacristy of the Cemetery Church of the Holy Trinity /45

The Farm Courtyard of the Monastery /46

Ostrov nad Oslavou, the Manorial Inn and Farm Courtyard /48

V. Santini's Final Years /50

The Stables and the Riding School /50

The Abbots' Hall /55

Santini's Legacy in the Žďár Monastery /59

Obyčtov, Parish Church of the Visitation of the Virgin Mary /61

VI. Zelená Hora – the "Green Hill" near Žďár nad Sázavou /64

The Construction History /67

Four Interpretations of Santini's Project for Zelená Hora /75

Optical Space Expanding into Infinity (Václav Richter) /75

The Symbolic Contents of the Church to St. John of Nepomuk (Jaromír Neumann) /76

Analysis of the Geometrical Dimensions – Cabbalistic Speculations? (Mojmír Horyna) /79

A Place of Mercy Illuminated with the Light of Holiness (Ulrich Füst) /80

VII. From the Architect's Task to the Significance of Architectonic Form /82

The Holiness and Majesty of a Sacral Site /83

Santini's Architectonic 'Pratica' /92

Santini's Handling of the Design /94

The Constants in Santini's Work /94

Stereotomic Illusions /95

Conclusion: The Architectonic Work and Its Interpretation /97

Bibliography on the Church at Zelená Hora and on Santini's Creative Work /98

Maps /102

Index /106