

Review of Central and East European Law

Volume 41, No. 2, 2016

Essays

The Semenchuk Case of 1936: Storytelling and Propaganda above the Law in the Soviet Criminal Trial

Anna Lukina

63-116

The Alleged Case of Golden Shares in Montenegro: A Candidate Country's Experience as an Incentive for Including Acta Jure Gestionis within the Range of Restrictions on Free Movement of Capital

Vladimir Savkovic

117-156

Regional Integration in Eurasia: The Legal and Political Framework

Zhenis Kembayev

157-194

On the Value of Commentaries on EU Law in the Central And East European Legal Space: A Review Article of Three German Standard Commentaries

Christoph J. Schewe

195-209

Book Review

Olga Shvartz (Schwartz), Effektivnost pravosudiia: Zarubezhnyi opyt primeneniia metodik otsenki effektivnosti i kachestva raboty sudov i perspektivy ego ispol'zovaniia v Rossiia [The effectiveness of the administration of justice: Foreign experience in the application of methods for evaluating the effectiveness and quality of the work of courts and perspectives on their use in Russia]

Peter H. Solomon, Jr.

211-213