

TABLE OF CONTENTS

March 1917	Chronology	ix
24 February 1918	Proclamation of the Estonian Republic
1918	Preface	xi
November 1918	Invasion by Soviet Russia
1 February 1920	Tartu peace treaty with Soviet Russia
1920	Reflections on the Estonian 'New National Awakening'	xix
12 March 1934	End of parliamentary democracy in Estonia
23 August 1939	Glossary of Abbreviations	xxvii
28 September 1939	Map of Estonia	xxx
16 June 1940	Map of the Estonian-Russian Border Area	xxxi
July 1940	Puppet assembly proclaims Soviet power in Estonia
August 1940	Estonia joins the USSR
June 1941	1 'One Day There Will Be an Estonian State'	1
July-November 1941	German army occupies Estonia
1941	2 The Long Second World War: Estonia Under Occupation 1940-91	33
Autumn 1941	Guerrilla war against Soviet occupier
1944-1953
1950	3 Old Wine in New Bottles: The Politics of Independence	65
1950	Johannes Kahla becomes CPE first secretary
1953
1960	4 'The Little Country that Could': Estonia's Economic Return to Europe	113
1987	'Pleasant Spring'
23 August 1987	5 'The Devil and the Deep Blue Sea': Foreign Policy Between East and West	147
September 1987	Popular Front of Estonia formed
April 1988
September 1988	Volias becomes CPE first secretary
February 1989	Start of Citizens' Committee movement
23 August 1989	'Solid Chain' to mark 50th anniversary of MRP
1989	Index	189
February 1990	Congress of Estonia elected
March 1990	Elections to ESSR Supreme Soviet
30 March 1990	ESSR Supreme Soviet declares start of transitional period leading to the restoration of independence
April 1990	Edgar Savisaar becomes prime minister
January 1991	Russia under Yelstin recognises sovereignty of Estonia
20 August 1991	De facto restoration of the Republic of Estonia
6 September 1991	USSR recognises Estonian independence
17 September 1991	Estonia enters United Nations	