

Contents

Notes on contributors	xiii
Preface and acknowledgements	xvii
1 Introduction: trials and tribulations at the ICTY	1
RACHEL KERR
2 The strategic purpose of the ICTY and international peace and security	15
MADOKA FUTAMURA AND JAMES GOW
3 Prosecuting with pictures: two decades of experience and evolution	29
JAMES GOW AND MILENA MICHALSKI
4 International law and institutional legacy: prosecuting those accused of breaching the legal bounds of war	58
CATHERINE ADAMS
5 Historical record and the legacy of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia	88
MADIHA INARA KHAN
6 Lost in translation? Perceptions of the ICTY in the former Yugoslavia	103
RACHEL KERR
7 Beyond The Hague: prosecuting war crimes in Bosnia and Herzegovina	116
OLGA MARTIN-ORTEGA

8 History, the ICTY's record and the Bosnian Serb culture of denial	133
HARIS SUBAŠIĆ AND NERZUK ĆURAK
9 Judging their hero: perceptions of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia in Croatia	151
IVA VUKUŠIĆ
10 Revisionism, denial and anti-ICTY discourse in Serbia's public sphere: beyond the 'divided society' debate	182
JELENA OBRADOVIĆ-WOCHNIK
11 International criminal justice and Kosovo: critical legitimacy and impact on a quasi-state entity	204
ERNST DIJXHOORN
12 Reflections on the lessons and legacies of the ICTY: rethinking reconciliation in the context of transitional justice	230
ZORAN PAJIĆ
Index	239